False beginners

Course organisation

- 8 x 2 hour sessions

This course is aimed at students who have studied French for only 1 or 2 years OR who studied French for longer but a long time ago. It is a 'False Beginners' course, therefore the pace will be faster and the amount of material covered wider than a complete beginners' course.

- Material for the course (photocopies, documents) will be circulated in class.
- Number of participants: 8-16
- This course is a self-standing course rather than part of an on-going programme.

Course objectives

- The aim of this course is to cover a number of basic situations such as:
 - Introducing oneself / talking about one's interests ...
 - Asking for directions / making a hotel reservation ...
 - Talking about recreational activities / the weather forecast ...
- We will adopt a communicative approach so as to enable students to express themselves in such situations.
- By the end of the course, students should have consolidated their linguistic skills at the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, level A1
