

'A Safe Place for Ships':

The Second Annual Irish Maritime History Conference

University College Cork

Friday, 16 October – Saturday, 17 October

This conference explores Ireland's rich sea-going past and culture. Topics include: piracy; naval warfare; smuggling; fishing communities; shipwrecks; Lusitania; boat-building, ports; World War One in Irish Sea.

Speakers include: Fionnbarr Moore (Chair, Underwater Archaeology Unit, Nat. Monuments Service); Poet Theo Dorgan; Dr Charles Ludington (Marie Curie Fellow, North Carolina St. Univ./UCC); Prof Favio Troncarelli (Univ. di Viterbo); Prof. Claire Connolly (UCC); Dr James O'Neill (IRC Fellow, UCC); Dr Ruth Canning (Marie Curie Fellow, Concordia Univ./UCC); Dr John Cunningham (NUI Galway); Dr John Mulqueen (TCD); Dr Paul Huddie (Univ. of West London); Sajid Bin Doza (Univ. de Evora).

Free Admission, No Registration Required

*UCC Main Campus: Fri., 1 – 3 pm, G19, Kane BLDG; Friday, 3 – 7 pm, Electrical Engineering, L-1
Saturday, 9 – 6 pm Electrical Engineering, L-1*

Organised by Dr Hiram Morgan (h.morgan@ucc.ie) and Dr John Borgonovo (j.borgonovo@ucc.ie),
School of History, University College Cork

Sponsored by

