

Department of Hispanic Studies Research Seminar Programme 2012-2013
(Provisional Titles)

Friday 19 th October	Karen Bennett (University of Lisbon) 'Translating Portuguese scholarly discourse: Is epistemicide inevitable?'
Friday 26 th October	Nuala Finnegan (UCC) 'Altars in the Desert: The Politics of Death in Narratives of the Ciudad Juárez femicides'
Monday 5 th November	Christopher Domínguez Michael on Contemporary Mexican Literature
Friday 16 th November	Cinta Ramblado (University of Limerick) 'Women, Memory and Atrocity in the Hispanic World'
23 rd -24 th November	Golden Age Symposium
30 th November	Donna Alexander and Rafael Jaime (UCC) – Postgraduate seminar presentations on Border Writing/ Border Mapping.
Friday 7 th December	María García- Liñeira (University of Oxford) 'Galician, Overpopulated Language'
Friday 11 th January	Kirsty Hooper (University of Warwick) 'Ríos, fontes, mares, océanos: Hydropoetics and the Galician Cultural Imagination'
Friday 25 th January	Catherine O'Leary (NUI Maynooth) 'Theatre Translation and Political Activism: The Use and Abuse of Foreign Drama in Franco's Spain'
Friday 1 st February	Ross Woods (Victoria University of Wellington) 'Literary Maps as Literary Criticism: Reading Antonio Muñoz Molina's Los misterios de Madrid Cartographically'
Friday 15 th February	Wil Pansters (Utrecht University/ University of Groningen) 'Popular strategies of justice in the context of violence and insecurity' followed by symposium on 'The Violent Border'
Friday 22 nd February	Philip Johnston (UCD) ' Quod elixum est ne assato: Antonio Machado and the Spanish Golden Age '
Friday 1 st March	Iberia in Translation symposium
Friday 8 th March	MA student presentations
Friday 15 th March	Ilan Stavans (Amherst College) – 'The Sounds of Spanglish'
Friday 22 nd March	Tabucchi colloquium
28 th -29 th June	Conference: Travel Writing and Narratives of Mobility in Contemporary Iberian Literature