

Informing GENOVATE

Feedback Report I

Thank you for joining us at the first in the series of GENOVATE@UCC World Cafés (11-12 noon, 27th February 2015, West Wing 4).

Your responses to each of the four questions have been collated into word clouds. These are presented above – and by question on pages 2 and 3.

For clarity, selected responses have been re-framed and/or consolidated. Thus your views on the word clouds are welcome, most particularly suggestions for re-framings and/or additions.

Your responses will be used – individually and collectively – to (i) develop GENOVATE's Gender Equality Action Plan (GEAP) (see responses in progress) and (ii) promote the GEAP within forthcoming meetings with UCC decision-making bodies (and through social media).

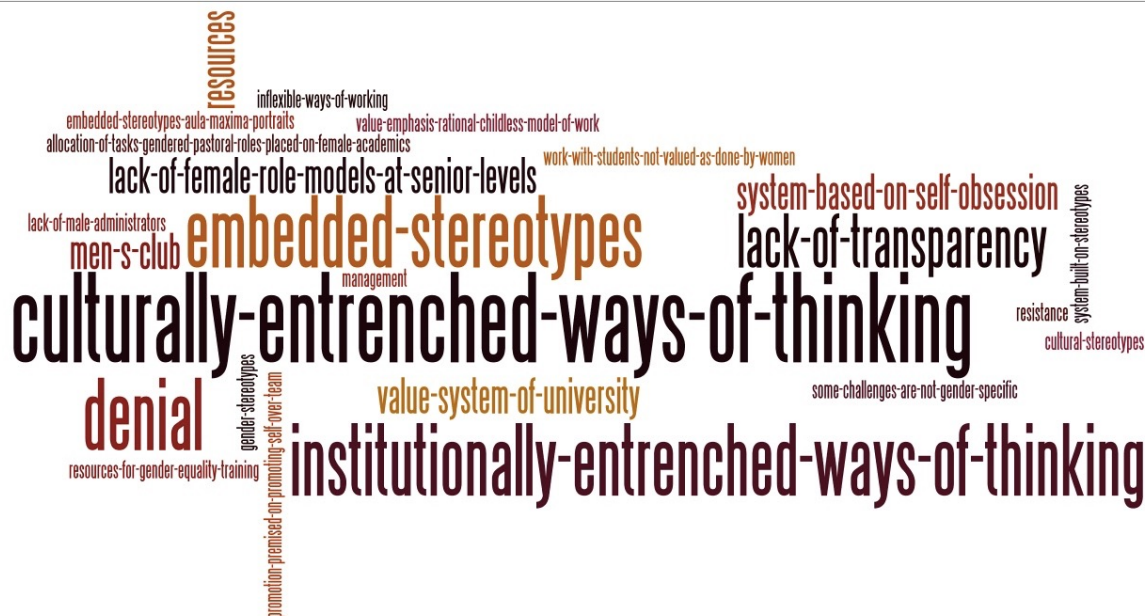

GENOVATE@UCC Project Team

Responses by Question

Question I: What does gender equality mean to you?

Question II: What, in your view, are the challenges to creating a more gender sensitive UCC?

Question III: What actions might you propose to create a more gendersensitive UCC?

Question IV: What is your vision of a gender-sensitive UCC?

A word cloud visualization of responses to the question 'What is your vision of a gender-sensitive UCC?'. The words are arranged in a cluster, with 'gender-inclusive-rather-than-sensitive' being the largest and most central. Other prominent words include 'gender-equality-training', 'female-president', 'diversify-approaches', 'diversify-expectations', 'increased-job-security-for-women', 'no-bias-of-men-or-women', 'making-things-fairer-for-women-benefits-men-and-women', 'treat-other-women-the-way-you-want-to-be-treated', 'men-more-respectful', 'university-accept-problem-of-gender-inequality', and 'system-change'. The words are in various shades of brown and orange.

gender-equality-training female-president diversify-approaches diversify-expectations
increased-job-security-for-women no-bias-of-men-or-women making-things-fairer-for-women-benefits-men-and-women gender-inclusive-rather-than-sensitive treat-other-women-the-way-you-want-to-be-treated men-more-respectful university-accept-problem-of-gender-inequality system-change