

Peter Herrmann

Developing a Methodology Based on the History of Ideas for Social Professions –
The Meaning of the Founding of the State

Meta-Theoretical Perspectives for Developing a Methodology for an International Approach

Dedication

Probably only EINER could undertake this project¹ – hoping that once foxes and little princes can be tamed in order to accept unity in difference in unity.

For so different people, meaning so different things in my life – Anke S. and Hans-F. Z.

¹ Alluding to a radio drama, telling the story of a tramp, an eternal tourist.

Table of Contents

List of Tables and Figures	6
Acknowledgements	8
Abstract	11
Guiding Question	11
Aim	11
Thesis	11
Methodology	12
Abbreviations	13
Part I Prolegomena	14
1. Background	14
2. The Known and the Strange – A Challenge for Europe and Social Professional Activities (SPA) in Europe	15
3. Social Action, Social Work and SPA – Marking the Field	17
3.1. Social Professional Intervention	17
3.2. A Profession Loosing its Subject Matter	20
3.3. The State – A Typology of Frames	20
3.4. Social Contracts and Social Policies	23
4. Methodology for Developing a Methodological Framework for Comparative Research	24
5. Marking the Field – References and Outline	26
Excursus A: The Social as Hypostatized Individualism and the General Interest	30
5.a. Rousseau’s Individualist Claim	30
5.b. The Individualist Curtailment of Natural Law: the Loss of the Actor- Perspective	34
5.c. ‘Primitive Accumulation for SPA’ – Fighting for General Interest	46
Part II: Vestibule – The Previous Work Undertaken	48
1. The First Room: Understanding Society – A Structural-Action Oriented Approach	48
2. Second Room: Comparison in European Social Policy – Regime Analysis versus Action Theory	53
2.1. Social Policy in Perspective	54
2.2. Knowing the Answers – But what are the Questions?	58
3. Third Room: ‘Gesellschaft’ and ‘Gemeinschaft’ – A Wrong Confrontation	66
4. Fourth Room: Social Quality Approach – Reintegrating Structure and Action in an Applied Theory Perspective or Arriving at a Meta-Theoretical Perspective	70
Part III: What Welfare – What Kind of State? or SPA and State – What Kind of Dependency?	74
1. Introduction	74
1.1. Focusing the Question – From where do we start?	74
1.2. A Brief Background Note – Understanding the Americans, Understanding the Europeans – but not Knowing the Question	74
1.3. The Aim of Overcoming Institutional Welfare and Social Policy Approaches	77
2. Theoretical and Methodological Perspectives	78
2.1. The Ontological Perspective	78
2.2. Epistemology	78
2.3. Theory	79

1. Theory of Modernisation and Civilisation as Process of Appropriation and Socialisation	79
2. Theory of the State as Part of Societal Formations	81
3. Welfare Analysis in the Context of the Theory of Regulation.....	85
4. Theory of Professionalisation.....	87
5. Theory of Social Need and Social Professions	87
6. Theory of Social Quality.....	99
Excursus B: From Norms to Law.....	101
6. Continued: Theory of Social Quality.....	102
2.4. Methodology	104
2.5. Methods.....	106
1. Secondary and Document Analysis.....	106
2. Discourse Analysis and Expert Discourses.....	108
3. Etymological and Terminological Analysis.....	109
Excursus C: Internationality and Historicity.....	110
Part IV: The Historiography of Social Professional Activity.....	113
IV. A. In Search for a Framework.....	113
1. Introduction.....	113
2. Modernisation – Defining the Framework.....	114
3. SPA – On the Way to a Common Ground and Understanding.....	119
4. Social Challenges in the Framework of Socialisation.....	121
Excursus D: Some General Requirements of SPA and the Paradox of Professionalisation	126
D.1. The Specificity: A Multi-Faceted Character.....	126
D.2. Professionalisation Issues.....	133
D.2.1. A Brief Historical Remark.....	133
5. Between Similarities of Secular Changes in the Modes of Soci(et)al Integration and Nationally Different Suggestions of Re-Integration.....	138
Excursus E: Social Problems versus Social Challenges.....	143
5. Continued: Between Similarities of Facing Secular Changes in the Modes of Soci(et)al Integration and Nationally Different Suggestions of Re-Integration....	147
Excursus F: The Three Great Themes.....	150
F.1. Introduction.....	150
F.2. Mainstream-Sociology and the Limitations in Understanding the Social..	150
F.2.1. The Mechanic-Utilitarian Approach.....	152
F.2.2. The Constructive Voluntarist Approach	153
F.2.2. The positivist and mechanic materialism.....	154
F.2.3. Structural functionalism.....	156
F.3. The Ontological and Epistemological Aspects of the Social Quality Approach.....	158
F.4. The Welfare Mix	159
F.5. The Localisation of SPA and Social Quality	159
F.5.a. Social Quality, SPA and Legal Interpretation	160
F.5.b. Social Quality and Political Definitions.....	160
F.6. Looking at the Social Professional Actor-Perspective – Division of Labor or Division of Minds.....	169
IV. B. Country Studies	170
6. England.....	171

6.1. Main Characteristics of the Socio-Contractual Agreements between General Value Systems and Nationally Defined Politics – The Contractual Societal Consensus	171
6.2. Changing economy	172
6.3.changing social relationships.....	177
6.3.a. Religion	177
6.3.b. The Class Society.....	180
6.4. Distribution of Every-Day’s Political Life – Governance and Governing between Local and Central Level.....	182
6.5. Emergence of Social Policy and SPA as National Paradigm: Definition of Social Challenges and Problems and Law-Making as Institutionalisation of Soci(et)al Practice.....	191
6.6. The Contract.....	198
7. France	199
7.1. Main Characteristics of the Socio-Contractual Agreements between General Value Systems and Nationally Defined Politics – The Contractual Societal Consensus	200
Excursus G: Socialisation – Accessing the Social or Freeing the Individual.....	202
7.1. Continued: Main Characteristics of the Socio-Contractual Agreements between General Value Systems and Nationally Defined Politics – The Contractual Societal Consensus	206
7.2. Changing economy	209
7.3.changing social relationships.....	213
7.3.a. Religion	215
7.3.b. The Class Society.....	217
7.4. Distribution of Every-Day’s Political Life – Governance and Governing between Local and Central Level.....	219
7.5. Emergence of Social Policy and SPA as National Paradigm: Definition of Social Challenges and Problems and Law-Making as Institutionalisation of Soci(et)al Practice.....	221
7.6. The Contract.....	226
8. Germany.....	227
8.1. Main Characteristics of the Socio-Contractual Agreements between General Value Systems and Nationally Defined Politics – The Contractual Societal Consensus	227
8.2. Changing economy	228
8.3.changing social relationships.....	235
8.3.a. Religion	236
8.3.b. Class Society.....	238
8.4. Distribution of Every-Day’s Political Life – Governance and Governing between Local and Central Level.....	244
8.5. Emergence of Social Policy and SPA as National Paradigm: Definition of Social Challenges and Problems and Law-Making as Institutionalisation of Soci(et)al Practice.....	247
8.5.a. Outline	247
8.5.b. The general challenge and answers given – a brief introduction in a comparative perspective.....	249
8.5.c. Developing the educational care and welfare state	251
8.6. The Contract.....	255
Part V: Conclusion	256

I.....	256
II.....	257
III.....	259
IV.....	260
V.....	260
VI.....	261
VII.....	262
VIII.....	263
VI.....	267
VII.....	270
VIII.....	274
Epilogue.....	278
I. The Analytical Perspective – A Proposal for a Different Focus	278
II. The Practical Perspective – A Proposal for Biased Practice rather than Comprative Analysis	279
References	282
Author’s Publications	282
Books	282
Book Editions.....	283
Contributions in Anthologies.....	283
Contributions in Journals.....	287
Book Reviews	292
Translations/Interpretations	294
Others.....	296

List of Tables and Figures

Figure 1: Basic Contractualist Paradigms	23
Figure 2: Problems versus Challenges in the Light of the Contractualist Consensus.....	24
Figure 3: List of topics and major reference works	29
Figure 4: Constitutional, Conditional and Normative Factors of the Social Quality Approach.....	71
Figure 5: The Keynesian Welfare National State	86
Figure 6: Schumpeterian Workfare Post-National Regime.....	86
Figure 7: SPA as Time Machines	93
Figure 8: Trinominal Structure of Assessing SPA within Societal Formations	93
Figure 9: Ladder of Modernisation as Development of New and Enhanced and Higher Stages of Community	95
Figure 10: Constitutional, Conditional and Normative Factors of the Social Quality Approach.....	102
Figure 11: The Interplay of Conditional and Constitutional Factors of Social Quality	104
Figure 12: Possible Terms for Etymological Study	109
Figure 13: Dimensions of Different Types of Socialisation.....	124
Figure 14: Contracts, Rights and Actors	132
Figure 15: Interest and Intervention.....	143
Figure 16: The Constitutive Interdependency of the Social	151

Figure 17: Matrix for Defining General Interest	160
Figure 18: Social Services of General Interest	163
Figure 19: Dimensions of the Rationales of Societal Action and Professional Orientations.....	167
Figure 20: Problems versus Challenges in the Light of the Contractualist Consensus	169
Figure 21: Interpretations and Interventions of SPA	197
Figure 22: Interpretations and Interventions of SPA – England.....	197
Figure 23: Interpretations and Interventions of SPA in France	226
Figure 24: Policies and Political Forces of German Development.....	245
Figure 25: Interpretations and Interventions of SPA in Germany	255
Figure 26: References of SPA	261
Figure 27: Social Participation and social-political Intervention	264
Figure 28: Social Participation and social-political Intervention – extended.....	265
Figure 29: The Iterative Approach of Analysing SPA – ‘Grippers’ as Tools of Increasing Analytical Interpenetration	269
Figure 30: SPA – Interpretation, Intervention and Socialisation.....	273