

Exercise 11: Preparing a Comparative Case Study

Part I: Work together as a group

Learning the lessons from Exercise 10, you are now going to be asked to conduct comparative case study.

Tasks

Choose two examples. These buildings/urban spaces/urban blocks should illustrate a distinctly different approach to the same set of problems/issues to be examined in your elective	10 minutes
Identify the types of information you will need to collect to conduct a comparative case study of these two examples. Discriminate between primary and secondary sources	10 minutes

Deliverables

1	Another group member prepared to give a 3 minute talk describing your group's selected comparative case study buildings including:
2	The specific focus of attention of your case study (precisely what is going to be compared?)
3	Your comparative case study's objectives
