COURSE DESCRIPTION

Section 1: Politics in Ireland with Dr Theresa Reidy

This section will examine the workings of government and politics in the Republic of Ireland. It will explore party politics and consider voting behaviour at elections since the foundation of the state. Political institutions and recent political reforms will also be evaluated. A comparative approach will be taken throughout the section.

On completion of this section, you should have expanded your knowledge and understanding of politics in Ireland, improved your analytical ability and developed transferable skills.

The following topics will be addressed during the module:

Political Institutions, The Electoral System, The Party System, Political Culture and Voting Behaviour.

Reading Materials for Section 3:

Coakley & Gallagher, Politics in the Republic of Ireland, 6th Edition, Routledge, 2018

Section 2: International Politics with Dr Michael Whelan and Ms Rebecca Crunden

What are the causes and consequences of international conflict and cooperation, both in a political-military sense and a political-economy sense? What is the role of the state in international politics? We will attempt to answer these and other questions through a systematic exploration of the origins and development of the modern international system right up to the present day. War, peace-making, international organizations, ideologies and the international political economy are all essential aspects of international politics which will be examined in detail.

Reading Materials for Section 2:

Daniel W. Drezner, Theories of International Politics and Zombies, Princeton: Princeton University Press, 2011

Section 3: Political Theory with Dr Katy Dineen

From COVID-19 to Putin, from the refugees' crisis to Trump, in order to make sense of politics today we need a firm grounding in political theory and moral philosophy. Does COVID-19 unmask structural inequalities, showing we are all deeply interconnected? Does the Brexit referendum reflect the will of the people? And what is 'the will of the people' anyway? And in the age of post-truth, do we know what is 'truth', and why is truth important to democracy? To answer these questions, we will need the help of some great philosophers in the history of ideas: Plato, Cicero, Rousseau, Kant, Marx and Hannah Arendt.

Reading Materials for Section 1:

These will be posted on Canvas.

ASSESSMENT:

- TOTAL MARKS: 300 [Continuous Assessment 300 marks]
- 3 x 1,500-Word Assignments 60 marks each
- 3 x In-Class Tests 40 marks each

Tutorial attendance and participation is compulsory.

Assessment for First Arts Politics is made up solely of “continuous assessment.”

This consists of:

- i) 3 x In-Class Tests taken at the end of each section
- ii) 3 x Assignments, given at various points over the course of the year.

There is no final summer exam for First Arts Politics

Section 1: The first in-class/Canvas test will take place on 9 November 2022 for the Politics in Ireland section.

The essay assignment is due on 25 November 2022 submitted through Turnitin/Canvas.

Section 2: The second in-class test will take place on 16 February 2023 and will cover material from Dr Michael Whelan and Ms Rebecca Crunden’s section.

The essay assignment is due 3 March 2023.

Section 3: The third in-class test will take place on Thursday, April 6th 2023. The essay assignment is due on Friday, April 14rd 2023

In-Class Tests may be carried out in class or on Canvas. A final decision will be made subject to Covid guidelines, and the information will be provided in class.

All assignments must be submitted via Turnitin/Canvas.

If you are unwell or face some other emergency on the day of a test, please provide appropriate documentation (e.g., a doctor’s certificate) to verify the reason for the absence on that date and the department will make alternative arrangements. Students are expected to submit medical certificates by email to government@ucc.ie

EXTENSION APPLICATION PROCESS

The Department supports students who have genuine difficulties and asks students to please be aware of and observe the following procedures:

- Extension requests need to be supported by appropriate documentation, e.g. medical cert or counsellor's letter.
- These documents need to be submitted in a timely fashion with the extension request. Extensions may not be granted for retrospective medical certs that are submitted weeks after the assignment deadline has passed.
- Requests will only be considered where the documentation is received within the period of the assignment, i.e. before the deadline, apart from when there are exceptional circumstances.
- The Extension Application Form is available on the Department website, and in the 'Pages' section of PO1001 on Canvas. The form needs to be completed and emailed to government@ucc.ie along with supporting documentation.
- Once the extension is approved by the Extension Officer, the student will be informed by email.

NOTE PLEASE:

- Students should not email medical certificates or notes of absences to individual lecturers – these should always be emailed to government@ucc.ie

Procedures for Repeat Examinations

If you fail the module overall (less than 40% in total) then you will have to repeat any of the continuous assessment elements that you failed or did not submit. Passed elements of continuous assessment are carried forward.

STUDENTS ARE ADVISED TO TAKE PARTICULAR NOTE OF THE FOLLOWING:

1. Work which is submitted late shall be assigned a mark of ZERO (or a Fail Judgement in the case of Pass/Fail modules).

2. University Policy on handling Plagiarism

- a) As soon as possible after the submission, the lecturer reviews the assignments and checks for plagiarism.
- b) Where plagiarism is suspected, the lecturer informs the Head of Department (HOD) and the relevant administrator.
- c) Where plagiarism is established, a meeting is scheduled with the student to outline/explain the case of plagiarism and the penalty to be applied. This meeting is attended by lecturer and HOD (or HOD's nominee). The penalty to be applied is at the discretion of the HOD.
- d) The lecturer advises the relevant administrator of the outcome of the meeting. Communication is sent to the student by the HOD/Administrator.
- e) In cases where the plagiarism is adjudged to be particularly egregious, the HOD and the team will complete the Student Records and Examinations Office (SREO) policy template report and forward it to the SREO. Communication is sent to the student to outline what was discussed at the meeting and the penalty to be applied. This communication will also advise the student of their options under the University's Breach of Examination Regulations process.

Coronavirus COVID-19

Help prevent coronavirus

Wash your hands

Cover mouth if coughing or sneezing

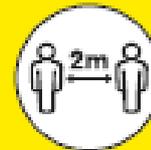

Avoid touching your face

Keep surfaces clean

Stop shaking hands and hugging

Keep a safe distance

The virus spreads in sneeze and cough droplets, so regularly taking the above measures helps reduce the chance of it spreading.
