

Risk, Rescue and Protection of Personal Assets in Insolvency Law

Thursday 5th July 2012
4.30 – 6.00 p.m.

The River Room, Glucksman Gallery, University College Cork

Registration fee: €40

Reduced fee for trainee solicitors & barristers in devilling years: €20

The many developments in corporate insolvency law which have taken place over the last decade are considered and discussed in the recent text on Corporate Insolvency and Rescue (Second Edition, Bloomsbury Professional, 2012), by Professor Irene Lynch Fannon and Gerard Nicholas Murphy B.L. (The first edition was published in 1996). Following on from this publication the authors of the text propose to consider some of the developments in selected aspects of the legal framework which are of topical interest. In addition, the interface between corporate and personal insolvency law is more important than ever as significant corporate indebtedness has been underpinned by personal guarantee. The authors are delighted to be joined by Gillian Keating, Partner in J. W. O'Donovan, Solicitors, who will discuss this subject.
