

University College Cork

Renaissance Studies, CACSSS

& Erasmus Plus Programme

in association with the Department of Anatomy and Neuroscience

presents

LEONARDO COMES TO UCC

A lecture series on the fabled cultural figure by da Vinci expert

Professor Pascal Brioist

(University of Tours)

Monday 12th to Thursday 15th February 15th 2024

Monday, February 12th, 2-4pm

INTRODUCTION TO LEONARDO

The Hub 1.72 (Shtepps)

Tuesday, February 13th, 2-4pm,

LEONARDO AND WARFARE

The Hub 1.72 (Shtepps)

Wednesday, February 14th, 2-4pm

LEONARDO AND FRANCE

O'Rahilly Building G.27

LEONARDO AND ANATOMY

In association with the Department of Anatomy and Neuroscience UCC

Thursday, February 15th, 12-2pm

Brookfield Health Science Complex G.05

Professor Pascal Brioist currently teaches in the Department of History and Archaeology at the University of Tours. He is the author of numerous books concerning Renaissance art, architecture, warfare and culture, including, in 2024, a biography of Leonardo da Vinci; and in 2019, as editor, the Gallimard edition of Leonardo's notebooks. He regularly collaborates on French TV and radio and holds the distinction of Chevalier des Palmes Académiques.

Organisers:

Professor Brendan Dooley, Professor of Renaissance Studies, CACSSS &
Professor Aideen Sullivan, Department of Anatomy and Neuroscience.

Contact: andreadicarlo89@gmail.com