Thursday 24th October
Venue: CACSSS Seminar room, ORB G27.

5.00pm  Welcome Prof. Cathal O’Connell
5.15pm  Introduction Dr Deirdre Horgan and Dr Helen Lynch, ISS21 Convenors Child and Youth Cluster, UCC.
5.30pm  Keynote Lecture
     Speaker: Professor Kay Tisdall, Chair of Childhood Policy at the University of Edinburgh
     Title: Thinking critically about creativity? Using creative research methods with children and young people
7.00pm  Finish

Friday 25th October 2019
Venue: BHSC 301.

9.30am  Introduction, Dr Deirdre Horgan and Dr Helen Lynch, ISS21 Convenors Child and Youth Cluster, UCC.
10.00am  Session 1
     Speakers: Dr Deirdre Horgan and Dr Shirley Martin, School of Applied Social Studies
     Title: Attempts at Authentic & Creative Research Methods with Children in Child and Youth Advisory Groups.
11.00am  Session 2
     Speakers: Dr Helen Lynch, Occupational Science and Occupational Therapy
     Title: – Videography in qualitative research with children: exploring ‘doing’ in participatory approaches.
12.15pm  Lunch
1.00pm  Session 3
     Speaker: Dr Annie Cummins McNamara, Department of Sociology, UCC.
     Title: - Animation: A creative, participatory approach to engaging children in research.
2.30pm  Session 4
     Speaker: Patricio Cuevas-Parra, Senior Global Policy Adviser for Child Participation and Rights with World Vision International Title: Child-Led Research: Questioning Knowledge.
3:30 pm    Session 5: Panel discussion: Professor Kay Tisdall, Chair of Childhood Policy at the University of Edinburgh.

Note: Students who wish to take the masterclass for credit are required to complete an assignment of not more than 2,000 words.