

JOIN US AT THE PAVILION, MARDYKE, UCC
THURSDAY 20TH MARCH 2025

The School of Public Health Research Forum

This is the first of a series of Research Fora, facilitated by Dr Darren Dahly, to be held three to four times per year. The Forum is open to all staff and with a particular focus on early and mid-career researchers. Topics will include the development of research proposals for funding calls, research ethics, research administrative requirements and related topics.

9:30 AM DARREN DAHLY, SPH AND CRF-UCC

Welcome, Research Updates (ORCIDs, grant tracking database, SPHeRE proposal workshops)

10:15 AM MARY-CLAIRE O'REGAN, BUSINESS MANAGER, CRF-UCC

Research Finance and Budgets

COFFEE 11:00AM-11:15AM

11:15 AM ERIN CROWLEY, ACADEMIC STUDIES COORDINATOR, CRF-UCC AND CORK CANCER TRIALS GROUP

Navigating patient focused research involving the HSE and UCC

LUNCH 12:15PM-1:00PM

REGISTER
FOR LUNCH

Public Health in Action Seminar with Prof Ivan Perry

1:00PM – 2:00PM

Titled 'Primary prevention of cardiovascular disease: opportunities and challenges', Professor Ivan Perry's talk is the seventh in the Public Health in Action series of monthly research seminars. Professor Perry's research interests have been primarily focused on chronic disease epidemiology and public health nutrition with a specific focus on cardiovascular disease (CVD), Type 2 Diabetes, self-harm and suicide. CLICK HERE FOR MORE INFO