

CONVERSATIONAL FRENCH

Intermediate level B1 (CEFR)

This course is designed for people who are Independent users of French

B1 Independent user
 Spoken interaction	I can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken. I can enter unprepared into conversation on topics that are familiar, of personal interest or pertinent to everyday life (e.g. family, hobbies, work, travel and current events).
 Spoken production	I can connect phrases in a simple way in order to describe experiences and events, my dreams, hopes and ambitions. I can briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans. I can narrate a story or relate the plot of a book or film and describe my reactions.
 Listening	I can understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. I can understand the main point of many radio or TV programmes on current affairs or topics of personal or professional interest when the delivery is relatively slow and clear.

Course organisation

8 x 1 hour sessions

Material for the course will be provided by the teacher in class and/or online.

Number of participants: 8 - 16

This course is a self-standing course rather than part of an on-going programme.

Course objectives and content

The course provides students with the opportunity to actively practice and develop oral communication through a variety of activities, such as: discussions, role-plays, word games, mini-presentations, etc.

French culture, society and contemporary issues will be explored; specific topics covered may include : Cities, Work, the Media, Technology, Tourism, etc.

Learning outcomes

On completion of this course, students should have improved their fluency, gained greater confidence in speaking French and should be able to communicate effectively on variety of topics in French.