CONTESTED ISLAND: IDENTITY CONFLICT & SETTLEMENT IN IRELAND

28 JUNE – 23 JULY 2027

UCC's International Summer School in Irish Studies provides students with a multidisciplinary introduction to Irish identity and culture. Through lectures and study trips delivered by leading experts, students will have the opportunity to explore the key turning-points in Ireland's past that have continued to shape its modern identity.

Academics

10 ECTS Credits (5 History & 5 Irish Identity). The History course is taught for the first two weeks of the programme, followed by the Irish Identity course in the final two weeks.
