

Fire & Ice photo exhibition at UCC

Prof John Gamble pictured with Siobhan Murphy of UCC at his exhibition FIRE & ICE: A Photographic Journey of Antarctica, in the Jennings Gallery in UCC. John Gamble is Professor in Geology at UCC since 2002. A graduate of Queen's University, Belfast, John returned to Ireland after 28 years in Australia and New Zealand. His research interests lie in the geochemistry of the deep Earth and in the processes that lead to volcanism at the surface. He has published more than 100 scientific papers and has the rare distinction of having three terrestrial landmarks named in his honour – Gamble Glacier and Gamble Cone in Antarctica and the Gamble Volcanic Complex a submarine volcano on the Tonga – Kermadec Island Arc in the SW Pacific.
