

UCC now accept the Duolingo English Test \(DET\) for student admission purposes for the academic year 2020/2021.

For more information regarding specific requirements, please refer to our FAQs.

Students presenting with certain scores will be required to undergo a UCC Language Centre Skills Check (LCSC).

WHAT HAPPENS IF YOU NEED A SKILLS CHECK?

RESULT OPTIONS

Full Offer

You are given a full offer

Your skills all meet the minimum requirement of your programme

Further Online Modules

One or more of your skills needs some improvement

You are offered one or more of the modules on our online modular pre-sessional to help you improve your skills levels.
If you pass these modules you will be given a full offer

Do Not Meet the Requirements

Your results show that you have weaknesses in your skills which equal more than about one IELTS band level

You are advised that you do not meet the required level of our pre-sessional courses and you will be invited to apply for our full-time Academic English Gateway to university course starting in September 2020

The UCC Language Centre will inform the Admissions teams of their recommendation and your application moves to the next stage
