How to get to UCC

University College Cork is located in the western part of Cork City, approximately 1km from the city centre. The main parts of UCC's Campus are along Western Road and College Road. Being in an inner city location, car parking facilities at UCC are limited, and so are road capacities for access to UCC, especially during rush hours.

Access by Coach: Cork Bus Station is located at Parnell Place in the eastern part of the city centre. The bus station is served by all Bus Éireann local and intercity services. For getting to UCC, take city buses No 205 (marked “Rossa Avenue/ CIT”) or No 208 (marked “Bishopstown”), starting at the bus station or at nearby St Patrick Street (200m distance).

There are further coach services to Dublin (operated by Aircoach and GoBe to Limerick / Galway (operated by CityLink), starting from Patrick’s Quay (at the opposite bank of River Lee’s North Channel). A walk to UCC would take about 20-30 minutes (click here to see Maps).

By Train: Train services by Iarnrod Éireann (Irish Rail) calling at Kent Train Station, north east of the city centre. To get UCC, take bus No 205 (marked “Rossa Avenue”) or the 208 (marked “Ballincollig”).

By Plane: Cork Airport is approximately 8km south of Cork city centre (see Map Airport-UCC). For other destinations in Ireland, the UK and continental Europe see Cork Airport’s homepage.

Bus connections to/from the airport are provided by Bus Éireann (to various locations in central Cork, including Western Road / UCC). A taxi trip to UCC will take approximately 10-20 minutes (depending on traffic) and cost about €15-20. In the arrivals hall there are desks of all major car rental companies.

By Car: From City Centre (Grand Parade): Take Washington Street/ Western Road towards the west (marked “Killarney / West Cork”). Pass the River Lee Hotel complex on your left. At the next traffic lights, you will be in front of the old College gate.

- For UCC’s Main Entrance, turn left, drive up O’Donovan’s Road to the top and turn right into College Road. Perrott Avenue car park will be immediately on your left, UCC’s Main Entrance is approximately 250m on your right.
- For Perrott’s Inch car park, head on straight on Western Road to the next traffic lights (Gaol Cross) and turn left. Perrott’s Inch car park is 50m on your left.
- For the Western Gateway Building, carry on through these traffic lights, and before you reach the next junction you will see the Building on your left.

From Limerick (N20): Follow the N20 into Cork until you cross the River Lee (Cork Opera House in front of you). Turn right onto the quays and take the first road to the left (Grattan Street). At the third traffic lights turn right into Washington Street (further see above).

From all other routes: Get onto the South Ring Road (N25) until Wilton/ Sarsfield Road Roundabout. Follow signs “Cork University Hospital/ City Centre” down Wilton Road. Follow the right bend into Western Road. You will pass the Western Gateway Building on your right. At Gaol Cross traffic lights turn right into Gaol Walk. Perrott’s Inch car park is 50m on your left. Also see Map Airport to UCC.

Western Gateway Building

The conference is taking place in the Western Gateway Building which is situated on Western Road. Please note that parking is extremely limited around the campus.
