

Centre for Law & the Environment

Recent Developments in European Union Environmental Law

#UCCLawEnv

5pm – 7.30pm

Friday, 28 June 2019

Boole 1 Lecture Theatre

University College Cork

This seminar explores recent developments in European Union Environmental Law. Three particular themes are selected for consideration on this occasion: nature law; access to environmental information and access to justice in environmental matters. The seminar is aimed at a wide audience including legal practitioners, regulators, local authorities, Government Departments, academics, NGOs, community groups, students and members of the public with an interest in environmental matters.

The seminar is funded by the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade Communicating Europe Initiative 2019. There is no charge to attend the seminar. However advance booking is required via this link.

Programme

- 4.30-5pm     Registration / Tea & Coffee
- 5pm            Welcome & Opening Remarks
Prof Mark Poustie, Dean of Law, UCC
- 5.10pm        Chair's Introduction
The Hon Ms Justice Marie Baker, Court of Appeal
- 5.15pm        'Impact of EU Law on Irish Environmental Law:
Contemporary Developments'
Áine Ryall, Seminar Convenor
- 5.30pm        'Access to environmental information: How EU law ensures the public has a right to know about environmental matters'
Dr Fred Logue, Principal, FP Logue Solicitors
- 6.00pm        'Recent Developments in EU Nature Law'
Suzanne Murray BL
- 6.30pm        'Access to Environmental Justice: the ongoing influence of EU
Law'
Tom Flynn BL
- 7.00pm        Q&A and Discussion
- 7.30pm        Seminar Close

The School of Law reserves the right to substitute and / or rearrange presentations if necessary.

Continuing Professional Development: 2.5 hours General CPD