Conference Attended: International Society of Hypertension in Pregnancy (ISSHP) European Congress, 6th-9th September; Berlin, Germany

I am grateful for this College of Medicine & Health travel bursary which allowed me to travel to Berlin, Germany this September to attend the ISSHP European Congress. This conference attracts researchers focusing on hypertension disorders in pregnancy with a main focus on Pre-eclampsia. I had the opportunity to disseminate my research in a multidisciplinary setting, engaging in discussion about it with a broad range of experts and networking. Overall, this conference was a worthwhile experience, giving me an overview of research carried out in my research focus and expanding my research skills and my academic development.
