

SEIF YAHIA SALAH EL HADIDI

School of Pharmacy

Conference Attended:

European Society of Cardiology, Heart Failure Congress
2019, Athens, Greece, 25TH - 28TH May 2019.

I got a three-fold benefits of this conference: -

- Education: -

1. It updated my clinical knowledge regarding the new trending research in heart failure diseases

- Research: -

1. I got a very positive feedback about my two posters.

2. My two posters are published in the European Journal of Heart Failure (IF= 10.13)

3. I met Prof. Sir Magdy Yacoud – Cardiology Titan (Imperial College UK) that discussed with me my research and my future plans

- Professional: -

1. It was a golden opportunity for networking with notable professors, doctors and peers working in the same area of research but of different perspectives and cultures. This opened the room for discussing potential ideas for collaboration.

2. I attended the annual meeting of education & e-health of the congress which helped me to discuss potential collaboration with other educational settings.

3. I got professional advice on my future steps in academia in Egypt and Europe from Prof. Marco Metra - Editor-in-Chief of European Journal of Heart Failure.
