

Communications for ESCALATION of Clinical Placement Matters within the School

Communication on student and operational clinical matters should be dealt with initially by making contact with the Link Lecturer for the area and can be then escalated if necessary following the direction of arrows above