

CATHERINE McAULEY
SCHOOL OF NURSING AND MIDWIFERY
UNIVERSITY COLLEGE CORK

ACADEMIC STAFF VACANCIES

College Lecturer in General Nursing
(2 posts; 6- month and 11-month contract duration)
College Lecturer in Midwifery
(1 post; 6-month contract duration)

The School of Nursing and Midwifery, University College Cork, is seeking to fill College Lecturer posts in General Nursing (2 posts) and in Midwifery (1 post). All posts are full time fixed term contracts. Successful candidates will be based in the School of Nursing and Midwifery, Brookfield Health Sciences Complex. UCC.

Applications are invited from those who hold at least a Masters Degree in Nursing and/or Midwifery. Clinical experience is essential. Prior teaching and assessing experience is essential. Some academic experience in the third level education context in teaching and assessing is desirable. Applicants must also be registered or eligible to register with the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Ireland (NMBI). Undergraduate and postgraduate programmes are delivered in person and online. In person teaching is required for these posts. Other short-term contract posts may be filled through the panel of appointable candidates shortlisted through this process.

Closing Date: 5.00 p.m. on Tuesday July 5th 2022

Application: By electronic submission of curriculum vitae to regina.murphy@ucc.ie

Enquiries to: Professor Josephine Hegarty J.Hegarty@ucc.ie

