

School of Nursing and Midwifery – International Scholarships & Fees – 2023’24

UCC’s School of Nursing and Midwifery’s offers scholarships to International students. The scholarship programme offers support to International nursing students’ domiciled in countries ranked according to the Human Development Index to pursue a course of study in one of Ireland’s leading Schools of Nursing and Midwifery.

MSc. (Non-EU) Nursing Tuition Fee and Scholarships for International Nursing Students

Tuition Fee: €18,900

Scholarships are available as follows:

- 50% for self-funding applicants domiciled in countries ranked between 116-191 in the Human Development Index i.e. students pay €9,450 tuition fee
 - 35% scholarships for self-funding applicants domiciled in countries ranked between 67-115 in the Human Development Index i.e. students pay €12,285 tuition fee
-

BSc. Nursing Studies (Top-Up Degree) Nursing Tuition Fee and Scholarships for International Nursing Students

Tuition Fee: € 11000

Scholarships are available as follows:

- 15% for self-funding applicants domiciled in countries ranked between 116-191 in the Human Development Index i.e. students pay € 9350 tuition fee
- 10% scholarships for all other self-funding applicants domiciled in countries ranked between 67-115 in the Human Development Index i.e. students pay € 9900 tuition fee

Eligibility

To apply for this scholarship, applicants must:

- Hold an offer to start a full-time one-year BSc. Nursing Studies or MSc Nursing (Non EU) at the School of Nursing and Midwifery, University College Cork, Ireland.
- Be classed as a non-EU (International) student for fee purposes in UCC
- Be self-funding

NOTE: Tuition fee scholarships will not be paid to students directly.