

UCC's Lowercase bookshop offers a Second Hand Book Service whereby you can bring in your old and unwanted second hand books and text books and we will price them and sell them for you. We do our stock takes every 3 to 4 months and if your books have sold we will contact you to collect your money. Lowercase take a 20% administration fee only after the books have sold and we accept old editions and non-academic books too. We recommend a lower price for older and less relevant books. At peak times of the year we have to be a bit more strict with what we take in.
