

UCC School of Music & Theatre – Cork Opera House

PhD Scholarship

Cork Opera House; Social & Historical Perspectives

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The School of Music & Theatre (UCC) and Cork Opera House (COH) PhD Scholarship on Cork Opera House; Social & Historical Perspectives, will be awarded in the form of a fee waiver, and a stipend of €10,000 p.a. tenable for a maximum of three years full-time (or 6 years part-time) from the date of first registration (either Sept 2018 or Jan 19).
2. This PhD Scholarship is for a student who wishes to carry out research for the degree of PhD (or PhD Track, as a pathway to a PhD) in the School of Music & Theatre at University College Cork, Ireland. Applicants must have at least a Second Class Honours (Grade 1) or equivalent in their first or subsequent degree.
3. Applications are invited from students who will commence a PhD (or PhD Track, as a pathway to a PhD) programme in either September 2018 or January 2019. Applicants upgrading from an MPhil or a PhD Track are not eligible to apply.
4. The scholarships are open to EU and non-EU students.
5. The successful UCC-COH PhD Scholarship recipient will be registered in the Department of Music in the School of Music & Theatre and supervised by Dr. Jillian Rogers.
6. Applicants must send a scanned pdf of their academic transcripts, a current CV and two letters of recommendation.
7. All documentation must be submitted in either Word or pdf format by email only to Aoife.Murphy@ucc.ie. Incomplete applications, hard copy applications, or applications received after the closing date will not be considered. Applications that exceed the word count limits will be penalised.
8. Applications will be assessed by representatives from UCC's School of Music & Theatre and Cork Opera House according to the following criteria: Quality of Project; research methodology; applicant profile.
9. Successful applicants must confirm their intention to take up the Scholarship within 4 weeks of the initial offer.
10. The scholarship holder and her/his research supervisor must submit annual reports to the UCC-COH partnership. If the progress reports are deemed unsatisfactory, the scholarship will be terminated.
11. The UCC-COH partnership should be notified in good time of any medical or personal problems likely to cause disruption to the scholarship holder's research schedule.