

Climate Law and Governance

Thursday, 10 October 2019

6.30-8.30pm, Boole 1 Lecture Theatre, Main Campus UCC

This event is open to the public. Advance registration is not required.

The Centre for Law and the Environment is delighted to host this open event during Community Week 2019. The event focuses on climate law and governance, with an emphasis on engagement, advocacy and activism to promote climate action.

Contributors

Áine Ryall Co-Director, Centre for Law and the Environment UCC will speak about recent developments in climate law, including climate litigation as a mechanism to force urgent climate action.

Youth activist Alicia Joy O’Sullivan, from Skibbereen, will speak about her recent experience representing Ireland at the UN Youth Climate Action Summit in New York.

Margaret Desmond Climate Services, Environmental Protection Agency, will focus on the role of the National Dialogue on Climate Action in leading on climate change activities at the national and local level.

Maria Kirrane Sustainability Officer, UCC will discuss the role of educational institutions in leading climate action and specific activities at UCC.

@UCCLawEnv @LawUCC

@UCC_Civic

@eriucc

#MakingWaves

