The following agreement must be completed, signed and returned to the SCENARIO Journal editors before a paper can be accepted for publication.

SCENARIO JOURNAL PUBLICATION AGREEMENT

This is an agreement between:

University College Cork – National University of Ireland, Cork ("UCC"), publisher and copyright owner of SCENARIO – Journal for Performative Teaching, Learning, Research, regarding the paper currently entitled:

_____

("Work").

1. The Author(s) retains ownership of the copyright in their Work but, as a condition of publication, hereby grants to UCC a royalty-free, worldwide, non-exclusive, sub licensable licence to:

   a) publish, reproduce, display, distribute and otherwise use the final version of the Work and all metadata in printed, electronic or any other format or medium (whether known or hereafter developed) for the purpose of inclusion in the Journal;
   b) authorise the use, distribution and/or reproduction of the entire Work for non-commercial purposes after the Journal has been published;
   c) deposit copies of the Work or an abstract thereof in online archives maintained by UCC or by third parties authorised by UCC; and
   d) assign, sub-licence or otherwise transfer any and all of the licences granted to UCC under this agreement;
   e) assign a digital object identifier to the Work and provide same to the Publishers International Linking Association Inc. and other third parties.

2. The Author acknowledges that, if included in the Journal, the Work will be freely available for non-commercial use immediately upon publication and distributed under the terms of the creative commons attribution/non-commercial/no-derivatives licence (http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/4.0/) which permits non-commercial use, distribution and reproduction in any medium, provided the original work is properly cited.

3. The Author(s) hereby warrants and confirms that you are the creator of the Work, it has not previously been published, is not currently under consideration by another journal and that to the best of the Author(s) knowledge the Work does not infringe upon any copyright, proprietary or privacy rights of any third party and does not defame any person or otherwise infringe upon the rights of any person.

4. The Author(s) further warrants and confirms that the Author(s) has the full power and authority to enter this Agreement and to grant the licences granted in this Agreement. If the Work contains material (such as pictures, figures, tables and texts) for which Author(s) do not hold copyright, they represent that they have obtained the unrestricted permission of the copyright owner to grant UCC the rights by this agreement, and that such third-party material is clearly identified and acknowledged within the Work. Author(s) must provide evidence of all permissions obtained where requested by the editors of the Journal.

5. The Author(s) hereby indemnifies and will keep indemnified UCC upon demand from and against all costs, expenses, claims, loss or damage incurred or suffered by UCC, or for which UCC may become liable (whether direct, indirect or consequential and including any economic loss or other loss of profits, business or goodwill) arising out of or as a result of any act or omission of the Author and/or in consequence of any breach of any warranty, obligation and/or breach of any third party right or other claim which may arise as a result of the publication of the Work by UCC or under this Agreement.

6. The parties acknowledge and agree that UCC will not include the Work in the Journal unless, in its final form, the Work is acceptable to both UCC and the Author(s). The Author(s) therefore agrees to co-operate with the editors of the Journal in the editing process to make the Work suitable for publication.

7. This Agreement shall be governed by Irish Law and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Irish courts.

By signing this agreement the Author(s) agrees to the terms specified above.
