Cogadh na Saoirse, 1919-21

Réamhrá:

San aonad seo déanfaidh tú scrúdú ar imeachtaí agus ar phearsantachtaí Chogadh Shaoirse na hÉireann. Thosaigh an choinbhleacht i Eanáir 1919 agus chríochnaigh sí leis an Sos Cogaidh i lúil 1921 agus neamhchosúil le hÉirí Amach 1916 tharla an chuid is mó den troid lasmuigh de Bhaile Átha Cliath. Ar an gcúis sin, ceiliúrann an chuid is mó de na contaetha imeachtaí a tharla le linn Chogadh Shaoirse na hÉireann.

Tugtar cuireadh daoibh éirí i bhur saineolaithe ar na trí chéim den choinbhleacht trí scrúdú a dhéanamh ar ábhar foinse príomhúla agus ar léarscáileanna bunaidh ón Atlas of the Irish Rebellion. Ag obair i ngrúpaí, bainfidh sibh úsáid as an saineolas sin chun taispeántas faoi Chogadh Shaoirse na hÉireann a phleanáil agus a óstáil don scoil. Leis an leabhar tionscadail seo déanfar sibh a threorú trí na céimeanna a bhaineann leis an taispeántas a eagrú ach, ar deireadh, beidh sé faoi bhur lánrogha féin an fócas, an t-ábhar agus an leagan amach a chinneadh.

Measúnú

- (a) Measúnú Leanúnach (10%): Bronnfar marc ort as rannpháirtíocht fhoriomlán sa mhodúl. Sin é an fáth gur cheart duit fanacht dirithe, eagraithe agus dul i ngleic leis na tascanna grúpa agus aonair.
- (b) An Tionscadal Grúpa (60%) Cuimhnigh, ní mór duit an spriocdháta a chomhlíonadh do Thionscadal Staire agus bronnnfar marcanna ar iarracht, samhlaíocht agus úrnuacht chomh maith le cálíocht do chuid oibre.
- (c) Cur i Láthair & Féinmheasúnú (30%): Beifear ag súil go gcuirfidh tú do thionscadal críochnaithe i láthair agus go gcomhlánóidh tú foirm féinmheasúnaithe.

COGADH NA SAOIRSE A CHUR AR TAISPEÁINT: COIMRE AN TIONSCADAIL

Sa tréimhse roimh cheiliúradh céad bliain bhriseadh amach Chogadh Shaoirse na hÉireann i 1919, is mian leis an scoil taispeántas a óstáil a bheidh ar oscailt do na scoláirí uile nó don phobal nó don dá ghrúpa araon. Mar shaineolaithe ar thrí chéim na coinbhleachta, iarradh oraibh an taispeántas a dhearadh agus a óstáil.

D'fhéadfadh na nithe a leanas a bheith san áireamh leis an taispeántas ach níl sé teoranta dóibh sin amháin:

1. Clair taispeána faisnéiseacha a bhaineann le gné amháin nó lena a lán gnéithe de Chogadh na Saoirse
2. Athlériú stairiúil - beodh nó mar scannán
3. Taispeántais de dhoiciméid/déantáin/grianghraif
4. Samhaltán athchruthaithe a bhaineann le gné amháin de Chogadh na Saoirse
5. Léarscáil bunaithe ar fhaisnéis a bailíodh ó fhoinsí éagsúla
6. Píosa ceoil, filíochta nó ealaíne lena gceiliúrann imeacht nó duine a bhaineann le Cogadh na Saoirse

AONAD 7: COGADH NA SAOIRSE, 1919-21

CÉIM I: EANÁIR 1919 - MÁRTA 1920

Bhí an chéad chéim de Chogadh na Saoirse comhdhéanta go príomha d'eachtraí ar leith idir an IRA agus Constáblacht Ríoga na hÉireann (RIC). Ó thuis na coinbhleachta, dhiúltaigh Rialtas na Breataine do Phoblacht na hÉireann a aithint nó chun a admháil go raibh cogadh ann idir an Phoblacht sin agus an Ríocht Aontaithe. Cuireadh síos ar an bhforéigean in Éirinn mar 'ainriai' agus ní raibh san IRA ach 'buíon dúnmharaíthe' de sceimhlitheoirí agus feallmharfóirí. Mar gheall air sin, cuireadh de chúram ar na pólíní seachas garastún 50,000 saighdiúir arm na Breataine chun déileáil leis an dúshlán roimh údarás rialtas na Breataine. Bheadh baint ní ba dhlúithe ag saighdiúirí Briotanacha leis an gcoinbhleacht ina dhiaidh sin, ach ón túis bhí fórsa na bpólíní ar líne thosaigh na coinbhleachta.

LUÍOCHÁN SHULCHÓID BHEAG

Ar an lá céanna a raibh an Chéad Dáil ag teacht le chéile an 21 Eanáir 1919, rinne óglaigh de Bhriogáid Thiobraid Árann Theas luíochán ar chonbhua an RIC ag Sulchóid Bheag. Ba chuspóir na hoibríochta an gheilignít a ghabháil á bhí á tionlacain chuiig cairéal áitiúil, agus chun cogáiocht a ghéarú i gcoinne an RIC. Faoi cheannas Dan Breen, Seán Treacy agus Seamus Robinson, ghníomhaigh Óglaigh Thiobraid Árann go neamhspleáach ar Cheanncheathrú Ghinearálta (GHQ) Óglaigh na hÉireann, a raibh cosc curtha aige ar a leithéid d'iomsaithe. Mar thoradh ar an luíochán maraíodh beirt phóilíní, James McDonnell agus Patrick O'Connell. Cháin an eaglais an gníomh agus thug GHQ ionardú do na hionsaitheoirí.

BAGHCAT AR NA PÓLÍNÍ

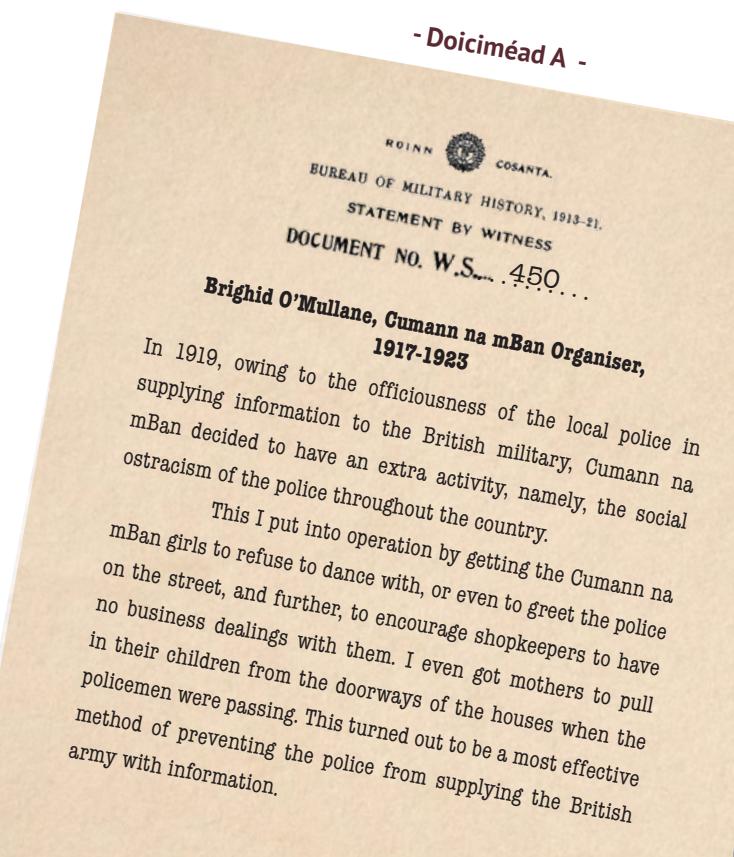

D'éalaigh Éamon de Valera ó Phriosún Lincoln an 3 Feabhra 1919 agus nuair a scaoileadh príosúnaigh

eile 'Chomhcheilg na Gearmáine' i Mártá 1919, bhí Uachtarán na Dála in ann teacht ar ais go hÉirinn gan aon bhaol gabhála. Bhí sé sa chathaoir ag cruinniú Dháil Éireann an 10 Aibreán 1919 ag a ndearna an tionól beartas a dhearbhú de bhaghcat a dhéanamh ar an RIC.

*"IS É AN RIC "SPIAIRÍ INÁR MEASC SÚILE AGUS
CLUASA ÁR NAMHAD NÍ MÓR A THAISPEÁINT DÓIBH
AGUS NÍ FOLÁIR NÓ GO MOTHAIÓNNA SIAD CÉ CHOMH
GRÁNNA AGUS ATÁ NA FEIDHMEANNA A CHUIREANN SIAD
I BHFEIDHM AGUS CÉ CHOMH SUARACH AGUS ATÁ AN ÁIT INA BHFUL SIAD".*

- Eamon de Valera (Diospóireachtaí Dála, imleabhar. F. uimh. 6, colún 67)-

Mar gheall ar an 'gcogadh sóisialta' sin, arna thionscnamh ag poblachtaigh ar dtús i 1917, cuireadh an RIC agus an pobal in adharca a chéile agus rinneadh ullmhúchán le haghaidh an chogaidh a cuireadh ar an bhfórsa ó go luath i 1920.

Ní raibh an RIC ullamh i gceart don choinbhleacht. I 1919 ní raibh an trealamh, an oiliúint ná na fir óga ag an bhfórsa pólíneachta a theastaigh uaidh chun troid i gcoinne na treallchogaíochta. Bhí siad feiceálach mar gheall ar a n-éidí sainiúla agus go minic bhí a mbeairicí suite i dtuathlimistéir iargúlta. Tar éis sraithe d'ionsaithe neamhrathúlaanois is arís ar bheairicí pólíní sa dara leath de 1919, d'ordaigh ardchigire an RIC go ndúnfaí na stáisiúin pólíní is leochailí. Rinneadh na pólíní a dhlúthú i mbeairicí a bhí daingnithe ní ba láidre ina raibh cosaint ní ba fhearr i gcoinne ionsaithe na reibiliúnach.

De réir mar a mhéadaíodh líon na n-ionsaithe foréigneacha, thug údarás na Breataine Limistéir Mhíleata Speisialta isteach ina raibh cruinnithe poiblí uile coiscthe. Ina dhiaidh sin is uile, d'éirigh an RIC, a bhí ina n-Éireannaigh den chuid is mó, éadóchasach agus neamhéifeachtach i gcoinne an IRA. D'éirigh go leor acu as nó d'imigh siad ar scor agus laghdaíodh neart an fhórsa de réir a chéile go dtí an fómhar 1920.

COGADH NA FAISNÉISE

Ba cheann de na gnéithe míleata is tábhactaí de Chogadh Shaoirse na hÉireann 'cogadh na faisnéise'. Mar Stiúrthóir Faisnéise an IRA, d'fhorbair Michael Collins líonra éifeachtach de spiairí lenar áiríodh Éamon 'Ned' Broy, ball de Rannán G - aonad bailithe faisnéise de bhleachtairí gnáthéadaí de chuid Phólíní Chathair Átha Cliath (DMP). Áiríodh le foinsí faisnéise Collins freisin pólíní, cléirigh, clóscríobhaithe, freastalaithe, iompróirí óstáin, foireann oifig an phoist, foireann beáir, oifigigh iarnróid agus iriseoirí.

Bhunaigh Collins Rannóg Faisnéise i gCeanncheathrú Ghinearálta (GHQ) Óglaigh na hÉireann agus oifigí ag 3 Sráid Crow, gan ach timpeall ar 200 slat ó Chaisleán Bhaile Átha Cliath. Rinne an foireann inti monatóireacht ar ghníomhairí agus ar spiairí na Breataine, choinnigh sí taifid ar phearsanra an namhad agus rinne sí monatóireacht ar a gcumarsáidí teileafóin, teileagraif agus poist. Tháinig cúntoir Collins, Joe O'Reilly, dhá uair sa lá chun tuarascálacha a bhailiú agus treoracha a thabhairt.

AN SCUAD

Tar éis dó eolas a chur ar chóras faisnéise na Breataine, thosaigh Collins chun a chuid oifigeach is tábhactaí a mharú. I samhradh 1919, bhunaigh sé aonad speisialta de ghunnadóirí lánaimseartha ó Bhriogáid Bhaile Átha Cliath an IRA de chuid Dick McKee. Bhunaigh an 'Scuad' ceanncheathrú rúnda i bhfoirgneamh ar a raibh bréagriocht mar Chaibinéadairí, Cumhdaitheoirí agus Tógálaithe Moreland i Sráid na Mainistreach Uachtarach.

An 30 Iúil 1919 d'fheallmharaigh baill an Scuad a chéad 'G-man', Bleachtaire Sáirsint Patrick Smyth. Tar éis sin an 11 Meán Fómhair feallmharaíodh Bleachtaire Sáirsint Daniel Hoey. Ar an lá céanna, fógraíodh an Dáil mar thionól contúirteach agus go gairid ina dhiaidh sin chuaigh Collins ar a sheachaint, brúdh ranna rialtais na Dála chun dul i bhfolach, agus chuir rialtas na Breataine cosc ar Shinn Féin agus ar Óglaigh na hÉireann. Tháinig an bhliain chun deiridh le hiarracht mhírathúil an Scuad chun Lord French a mharú ag stáisiún iarnróid Bhaile an Ásaigh.

An 21 Eanáir 1920 scaoileadh marbh Coimisinéir Cúnta nua na bpólíní, William Redmond, agus rinneadh luaíocht £10,000 a thairiscint ar choirp Michael Collins - marbh nó beo.

Beairic Chonstáblacht na hÉireann (RIC), Achadh Lon, Contae Fhear Manach, go luath sna 1900í

Bunaíodh an RIC i 1822 mar chonstáblacht bunaithe ar na cúigí; athraíodh í go Constáblacht na hÉireann bunaithe ar na contaetha i 1836 agus athainmníodh í Constáblacht Ríoga na hÉireann tar éis éirí amach na bhFíníni i 1867. Tógaodh beairicí i mbailte agus i sráidbhailte ar fud na tíre agus ag túis an Chéad Chogaidh Dhomhanda bhí níos mó ná 1,400 beairic leata ar fud na hÉireann.

Bhí an RIC ina gné thábhachtach de rialtas na Breataine. Bá í an RIC súile agus cluasa an rialtais i measc an phobail agus an chéad líne chosanta i gcoinne aon dúshlán roimh an údarás.

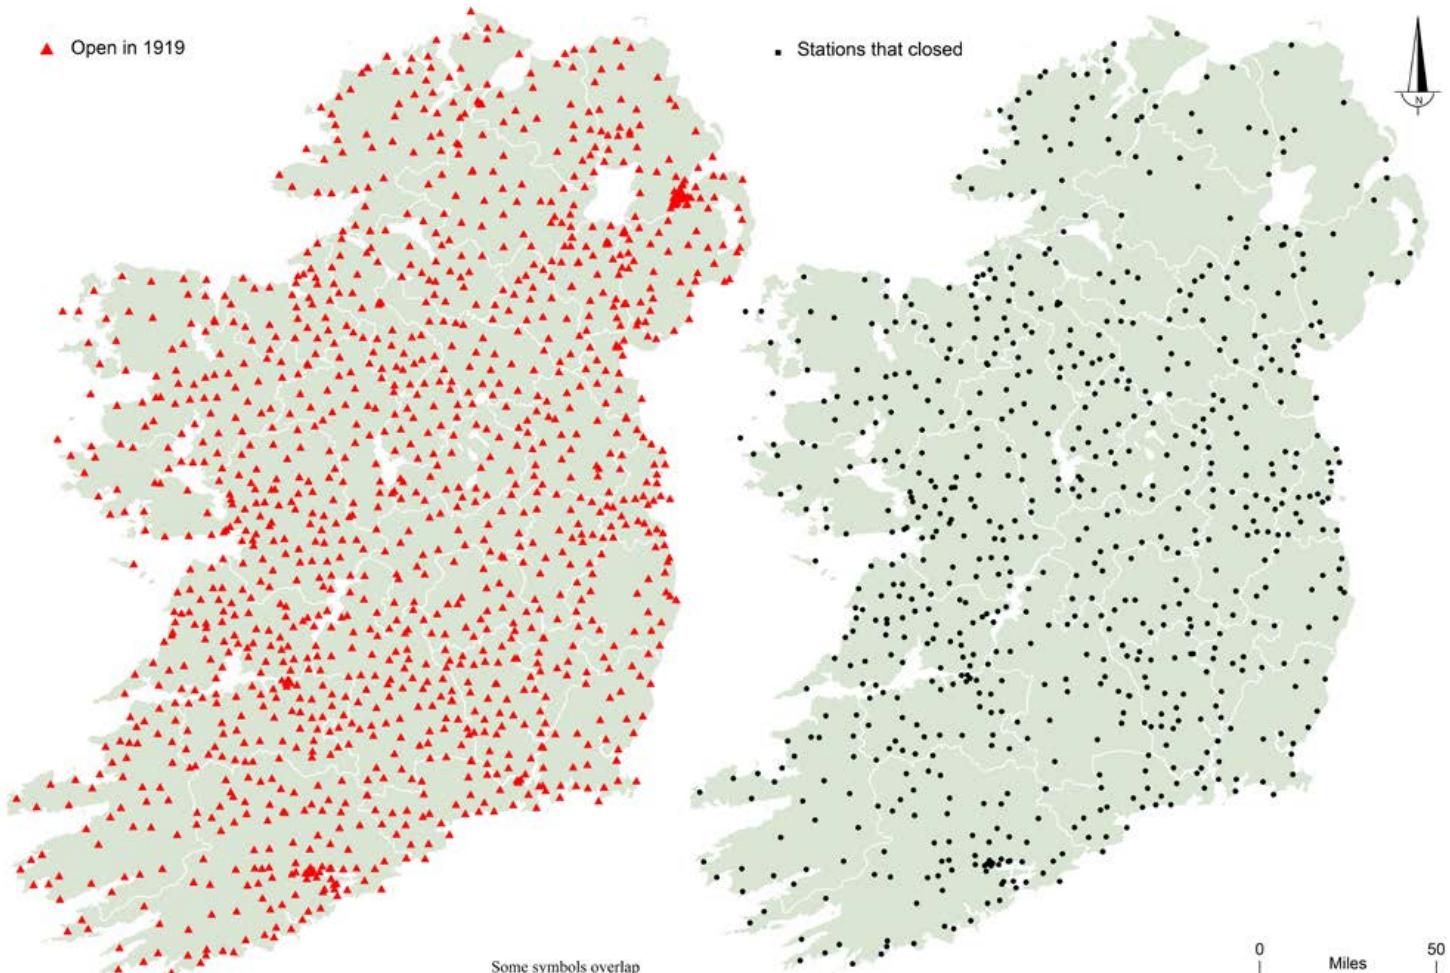

Do na gnáth-chonstáblaí a bhí ina gCaitlicigh den chuid is mó, trí dhul isteach san RIC, soláthraíodh ní amháin fostaíocht chobhsaí ach stádas agus measúlacht freisin, go dtí an bunathrú a tháinig le Cogadh na Saoirse.

Láithreacha bheairíci an RIC i gContae Chorcaí in Eanáir 1919 agus in Eanáir 1921

Bhí an lín is mó bheairíci sa tir i gContae Chorcaí i Eanáir 1919, agus 123 ann san ionlán, agus bhí an chuid is mó acu (87) i réigiún an triain thoir, lenar áiríodh aon bheairic déag sa chathair. Thosaigh an t-iomsaí ar fud na tíre ar an RIC i gCorcaigh i Eanáir 1920 nuair a gabhadh an bheairic leath-dhaingnithe ag Carraig Thuathail ag an IRA. Faoi Eanáir 1921 bhí ochtó bheairic tréigthe, lenar áiríodh sé chinn den aon bheairic déag sa chathair. Rinneadh na pólíní a athshannadh do na bheairíci a bhí fágtha agus osclaíodh stáisíún nua ag Plás an Bhanimpire mar cheanncheathrú na bpólíní Cúnta. Faoi Eanáir 1921 bhí naoi mbeairic déag de na sé bheairic is tríocha iniarthar Chorcaí dúnta, agus mar gheall ar sin bhí an iomarca líonta sna bheairíci sna bailte agus sna sráidbhailte níos mó. Bhí an patrún mar an gcéanna in oirtheor Chorcaí agus ar fud na tíre.

BARRACKS ATTACKED

Broadford (Co. Clare) police barracks, about ten miles from Limerick, was attacked by twenty armed men yesterday evening. The barracks is occupied by five men, and at the time of attack (2 am) the majority were in bed. For an hour until apparently all the available ammunition had been used, the occupants threw stones at the barracks and made some noise. Police were in bed, as yet been made, with his family in the room.

POLICE BARRACKS ATTACKED BY ARMED MEN

A sensation has been caused by the report of armed attacks which were made on two outlying barracks in Co. Meath on Friday night, with fatal consequences in one case. Shortly after ten o'clock Bellivor Barracks, some distance outside Trim, was raided by an armed party ... and all the arms and ammunition in the place removed in two motor cars. Almost simultaneously a raid was made on Dillon's Bridge Barracks, but in this case the assailants were driven off after an exchange of shots which lasted for a considerable time ... The only, clue in the possession of the police is said to be some bicycles left by the raiders at Another attack on a Co. Clare police barracks is reported to have occurred at Kilienora. It appears that about 9.30 on Sunday night a party of men surrounded the barracks and fired a number of shots into it, shattering the windows. The police barracks were situated in a rural village of Ballinacarrig, six miles from Milltown Malbay, on the main road to Limerick. The police barracks had been closed for some time, but the sergeant and his men were still there.

HOW IT WAS DONE – IRA INTELLIGENCE

by PIARAS BÉASLAÍ

The RIC had established a system of espionage which was wonderfully efficient [by 1916]. In every town and village all the movements of persons was watched and reported on. All popular organisations were kept under observation, and all persons who expressed patriotic opinions were the object of surveillance ... In Dublin the work fell upon the 'political section' of the 'G' or detective division of the Dublin Metropolitan Police. Their methods were more crude and obvious. They 'shadowed' men known to have what they called 'extreme views' [and] noted their movements and their associates ... This was done in so open a manner that our being followed around by our 'escort' of 'G' men, was a matter of jest to us.

The first step towards creating a Volunteer, or (to use the later term) IRA intelligence service came from within this very 'political section' of the 'G' division. Some young men in that body were in secret sympathy with those they were required to spy on, and made cautious overtures to Sinn Féiners of their acquaintance in early 1918. Through Mr Michael Foley, Éamonn (Ned) Broy ... came into contact with Michael Collins and arranged a system of sending him information ... This was the beginning of the systematic undermining of the British machinery of espionage in Ireland. Subsequently, Michael Collins got in touch with another detective, David Nelligan, who later was sworn in as a member of the British secret service! ...

In April 1919, Collins made a daring midnight visit to the headquarters of 'G' division in Brunswick Street, now Pearse Street. Broy was alone on duty, and had locked the door of the dormitory in which the other detectives were sleeping. A number of secret documents and confidential reports were locked up in a small room on the upper floor, which Broy unlocked with a skeleton key, and Collins spent several of the small hours of the morning studying these papers and making notes. He was particularly amused by a report on himself, which began with the words: 'He comes of a brainy Cork family.'

In 1918 a department of intelligence was set up by GHQ [Volunteers General Headquarters] ... Finally, in 1919, Michael Collins became officially director of intelligence and commenced to organise a department on a considerable scale ... The intelligence staff was built up slowly, as suitable men were not easily found. A good intelligence officer is born, not made ...

In July 1919, 'The Squad' was formed, a body that played a big part in the subsequent fighting in Dublin. The Squad consisted of a small body of Volunteers attached to the intelligence department, specially selected for dangerous and difficult jobs ... The activities of the intelligence department continued to expand. The keys to police, official and military cipher codes were obtained and gradually a system was established by which English official messages were tapped at various postal centres and decoded. Copies of the necessary codes were sent to intelligence officers in the country to enable them to deal at once with matters urgently concerning their own units.

By the end of 1920, battalion intelligence officers were appointed in every active area in Ireland [and...] by 1921 the department possessed photographs of practically every Auxiliary and most of the intelligence officers in Dublin.

Sliocht ó agallamh a rinneadh le gníomhaire an dá thaobh David Nelligan ag deireadh na 1970í.

There were no jobs to be got around the country at all during the First World War, but I used to notice some of the local men from where I came from in West Limerick coming home from their jobs in the Dublin police, the DMP. They used to be home on leave wearing fine suits of clothes and high stiff collars and riding bicycles, and I used to envy them this, you see. I thought they were paid for walking around the town and doing nothing. So I applied for the Dublin police. My father didn't want me to leave the place at all, and he burned my papers when they came down from Dublin Castle. The revolution was livening up at the time and he didn't want me to get mixed up with anything like that ... but I wanted to shake the dust off my feet, so I gave a neighbour's address, and the papers came down and I found myself on the way to Dublin ...

I soon found out that the police weren't paid for walking about and doing nothing else, as I thought when I was an ignorant gobdaw down the country. I had to go on night duty, 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. every night for a solid month ... Well, of course, I soon got fed up with the old uniformed job ... so I decided to join the 'G' division looking for adventure. 'Twas easy for me to join because they were all getting shot by revolutionaries and they were taking on practically anybody. ... A man named Tim Kennedy from Tralee down in Kerry sent word to my brother that he wanted to see me. He was a small little man about four feet nothing in height. But he was a Jekyll and Hyde - we were all Jekyll and Hyde characters in those days. He was an accountant by day and a revolutionary by night...

He told me that he had a letter from Michael Collins. He said 'Collins wants to see you'. 'What does he want me for?' says I. Collins was only a legendary character as far as I was concerned. He said, 'I think he wants you to [do] police work for the IRA.' ...

Joe O'Reily took me down to an old third rate pub in upper Abbey Street ... and there was a handsome-looking man sitting there in an old shabby suit and an old dust coat thrown over the back of the chair. This was the famed Michael Collins.

I didn't fancy the role of spy at all ... 'Listen Dave', says he, 'the British trust you and we trust you. If you want to serve this country and the revolution then go back [to G division]. He was a persuasive kind of man, and a very magnetic character. So against my better judgment ... I started my nefarious career as a double agent'.

Láithreacha i mBaile Átha Cliath a raibh baint acu le Michael Collins le linn Chogadh na Saoirse

FOTHEIDEAL:

Ba é Collins an príomh-eagraí de ghluaiseacht na saoirse, agus an dá phost tábhachtach aige de stiúrthóir faisnéise an IRA agus rúnaí airgeadais Dháil Éireann. Choinnigh sé an oiread oifigí, tithe sábhalte agus áiteanna coinne i mBaile Átha Cliath, agus go leor acu cruinnithe thart ar Shráid Parnell i lár thuaidh na cathrach. Cuireadh bréagriocht ar roinnt dá ionaid riarrachán mar oifigí tráchtála, agus de ghnáth bhog sé timpeall agus é dea-ghléasta agus cuma cléirigh nó fir ghnó air. Bhí sé ag brath freisin ar óstáin, ar thithe tábhairne agus ar shiopaí nach raibh faoi amhras ach a bhí á réachtáil ag tacadóirí poblachtacha.

Tagann aitheantóirí na láithreacha as teanga chomhaimseartha agus léirítear béalagair na tréimhse leo, amhail 'joint' (óstán nó teach tábhairne ar bhual Collins le comhghleacaithe, spairí, teachtairí, srl iontu), 'dump' (taisce ina ndearnadh arm agus armlón a stóráil) agus 'dugout' (ái ina raibh baill an Scuaid 'holed up' (i bhfolach) agus iad ar a seachaint nó ag fanacht ar bheart). Tá roinnt láithreacha ina ngné den léarscáil freisin a bhaineann le 'Scuad' Collins, grúpa gníomhairí faisnéise an IRA a raibh feallmharú mar speisialtóireacht acu, amhail oibríocht 'Dhomhnach na Fola' i Samhain 1920.

Leagan giorraithe de Ráiteas Finné Liam Archer (586) do Bhiúró na Staire Míleata a cuireadh isteach an 5 Mártá 1953.
Ball de Rannóg Fhaisnéise G.H.Q., 1920-21

Apart from my activity in the Battalion I became involved in Intelligence. I was a Post Office Telegraphist - reinstated following a period of suspension from duty after Easter Week. On 21st August, 1918, two sisters and a brother were prosecuted in Glasgow for attempting to carry arms to Ireland. I took a copy of a cipher [coded] message from R.I.C. Dublin to Police Glasgow and brought it to Collins. He was very interested and asked could I get more. I said I thought so.

By degrees I organised a group of about a dozen men and women who worked for the next four years on this task ... Because of the anti-national outlook of some of the staff, we had to be very careful. Supervision of staff was very close. I think my most profitable period was when curfew began at 8 p.m. I was on night duty and each morning for three weeks I took out in my socks copies of every police cipher message that had passed through the office the previous day. This was November, 1920 ...

Some time before I got on this work Collins had made contact with members of the detective division and he soon was able to supply me with the key to the cipher ... The key was a word in which no letter was repeated, and having 10 or 11 letters but not more than 13. The word being written out was followed by the first letters of the alphabet which were not [already] in [the word] to bring the number of letters to 13, and the remaining letters of the alphabet written underneath, viz:-

SWITZERLANDBC

FGHJKLMOPQUVXY

Thus F = S or vice versa. As the new key word was sent out in the old cipher on the 1st of each month, we were automatically supplied ... Collins had several "post offices" in the city into which we could drop [deciphered] messages and one, a dairy, was in Amiens Street, a short distance from the telegraph office.

From about October 1920 until the Truce I was "on the run" as far as not being able to sleep at home was concerned. In the daytime I was, of course, on duty in the Central Telegraph Office. I suffered two raids, one early in 1918 by four detectives .. I was not at home when they called, and though they made a close search of my room they did not open a locked drawer which, besides two revolvers, contained a lot of very incriminating papers. From the description I concluded the "Dog" Smyth, Hoey and Coffey were in the party.

CÉIM 2: MÁRTA - NOLLAIG 1920

Ón 1 Eanáir 1920, nuair a cheadaigh GHQ an IRA ionsaithe i gcoinne Fórsaí na Corónach go hoifigiúil, méadaíodh déine na gníomhaíochtaí ar fud na tíre. Neamhchosúil le gníomhaíocht an IRA le linn 1919, lenar gcuimsíodh gabhlacha arm agus ionsaithe ar phoíilíní aonair, chonacthas tréanionsaithe ar an RIC ag túis na hathbhliana.

Ag an Cháisc 1920 d'ordaigh GHQ slógadh mór Óglaigh na hÉireann le haghaidh ionsáí comhbheartaithe ar fud na tíre agus scriosadh níos mó ná 300 foirgneamh, agus beairicí pólíní folmha, tithe cúirte agus oifigí cánachais san áireamh thar oíche an 3 go 4 Aibreán. Faoi dheireadh na bliana, scriosadh 533 bheairic pólíní, a raibh trí chinn is fiche acu in úsáid nuair a ionsaíodh iad.

Rinneadh ruathair agus gabhlacha ní ba mhinice agus tugadh cuirfiú isteach. Ach, thosaigh roinnt pólíní chun leas a bhaint as foréigean neamhdhleathach. An 20 Eanáir 1920, tar éis do chonstábla RIC a bheith gortaithe i nDurlas, Contae Thiobraid Árann, thóg a chomrádaithe círéib, agus iad ag scaoileadh sna sráideanna agus ag briseadh fuinneog sna foirgnimh faoi úinéireacht poblachtach áitiúil iomráiteach.

An 20 Márt 1920, Tar éis do na hÓglaigh triúr constáblaí RIC a mharú i dtrí lá, scaoileadh an tArd-Mhéara Tomás MacCurtain ina bhaile féin i gCathair Chorcaí, gan mórán amhras go ndearna na pólíní an gníomh. D'éirigh an choinbhleacht níos nimhní mar gheall ar a leithéid de ghníomhartha agus bearta díoltais a rinneadh ina ndiaidh.

FRITHIONSAÍ NA BREATAINE

Faoin am sin bhí rialtas na Breataine ag glacadh céimeanna chun an RIC éadóchasach a threisiú. I Nollaig 1919, chuir sé túis le feachtas earcaíochta sa Bhreatain a bhí dírithe ar iarshaighdiúirí óga ag a raibh scileanna agus taithí mhíleata.

Mar gheall ar easpa éidí dúghlasa an RIC, bhí meascán d'éadaí pólíní agus d'éadaí míleata ag earcaigh nua don RIC mar éidí; i gcásanna áirithe chaith siad bríste agus ionar míleata agus caipín agus crios pólín. Laistigh de chúpla mí tugadh an leasainm 'na Dúchrónaigh' orthu, is cosúil mar gheall ar phaca gadhar sionnach i gContae Thiobraid Árann.

Thosaigh na Dúchrónaigh ag teacht go hÉirinn i Márt 1920. Bhí siad níos iomadúla sa deisceart, áit a raibh an troid is fíochmhaire agus áit a raibh an lón is airde taismeach agus pólíní ag imeacht ón bhfórsa. Cosúil lena gcomrádaithe Éireannacha, níorbh fhada go raibh na Dúchrónaigh ag glacadh páirt i mbearta díoltais neamhoifigiúla.

I mí lúil rinneadh na Dúchrónaigh a fhorlónadh ag Rannán Pólíní Cúnta an RIC. Íocadh a dhá oiread do scoth-chór iar-oifigigh Arm na Breataine lenar íocadh leis na daltaí aim agus bhí complachtaí na bPólíní Cúnta armtha le meisínghunnaí éadroma agus le gránghunnaí athscailteacha mar aon le raidhfíl agus gunnán seirbhíse.

Ba chomplachtaí a bhí mótarthrealmhaithe ina n-iomláine iad complachtaí na bPóilíní Cúnta, agus carranna turasóireachta do na hoifigigh, Crossley Tenders (trucailí éadroma) dá bhfir agus fiú carranna armúrtha acu. Chaith siad éidí liathbhú agus dubha sainiúla agus caipín ‘tam o’shanter’ orthu. Níor bh fhada gur bhain Rannán na bPóilíní Cúnta droch-cháil amach as drochíd a thabhairt do shibhialtaigh, as réabhlóidithe aitheanta agus daoine faoi amhras as bheith ina réabhlóidithe a dhúnmarú agus as bailte agus siopaí a dtacadóirí a dhó.

- David M. Leeson, Atlas of the Irish Revolution, (CUP, Corcaigh 2017)-

Roimh 1920, bhí ionsaithe díreacha an IRA dírithe ar an RIC, agus bhí Arm na Breataine go príomha i leataobh ón gcoinbhleacht. Ach de réir mar a theastaigh tacaíocht níos mó ón RIC, áfach, méadaíodh láithreacht arm na Breataine i Éirinn. Thosaigh trúpaí chun foirgnimh mhóra áitiúla a ghabháil amhail tithe na mbocht agus foirgnimh phoiblí eile agus faoin samhradh 1920 bhí treallchogaíocht fhuilteach ar siúl idir an IRA agus Arm na Breataine.

Faoin am sin bhí sé soiléir don Phríomh-Rúnaí nua-cheaptha, An Ridire Hamar Greenwood, agus d’Ardchean-nasaí Fhórsaí na Breataine in Éirinn, Ginearál an Ridire Nevil Macready, go raibh údarás na Breataine in Éirinn ag éirí neamhéifeachtach. An 9 Lúnasa 1920, thug an rialtas an tAcht um Athchóiriú Oird in Éirinn, rud a thuga an chumhacht do Chaisleán Bhaile Átha Cliath chun rialú le rialachán. Cuireadh gabhálacha sluite móra, imtheorannú, díbirt, armchúirteanna, cuirfiúnna agus básuithe i bhfeidhm de réir mar a d’éisigh cursaí míleata níos measa.

Bhí Rannán larshaighdiúirí & Tiománaithe lonnaithe ag Baile Ghormáin agus 856 ball inti, agus sholáthair siad na tiománaithe don ADRIC, agus bhí dhá chomplacht eile, 'S' agus 'Z', a raibh baint acu le faisnéis agus cumarsáid, lonnaithe ag Caisleán Bhaile Átha Cliath. Bhí seacht gcomplacht allamhúigh déag ('A' go 'R') lonnaithe ag amanna éagsúla ar fud seacht gcontae déag.

Sliocht ó thaifeadadh atá i Rannán na Cartlainne Fuáime ag Músaem Cogaidh na hImpireachta. Sa taifeadadh, tugann an Maor Reginald Graham cuntas ar a sheirbhís mar shaighdiúir óg sa Reisimint Devonshire le linn Chogadh na Saoirse. Bhí sé lonnaithe i bPort Láirge.

Interviewer: Now, one of your early experiences was that you were posted to Ireland during the “Troubles” there. Can you tell me about your posting there?

RG: Well, we were sent there in July 1920 from Devonport. Headquarters [was] at Waterford and detachments, companies, were sent out to Waterford, Clonmel, Kilkenny and various other places.

Interviewer: Where did you go?

RG: Waterford ... There were two barracks in Waterford: the artillery and the infantry barracks. The infantry barracks was built to accommodate about 200 men but there was about 600 in them till we sent out the detachments. We were sleeping on floors or in tents and so forth.

Interviewer: Did you ever get an impression of the situation in Ireland as far as the “Troubles” were concerned?

RG: Yes, because we had men wounded, policemen were wounded, ambushes were of a frequent nature, police barracks were attacked and burnt down and there was little or no co-operation between the Royal Irish Constabulary and the troops ... and then they recruited the Black and Tans who were for all intents and purposes the dirty job boys. You know, they were ex-officers clad in all sorts of uniform, armed with various weapons and they were paid a pound a day. They were really tough people

Interviewer: Was a pound a day a lot then?

RG: Oh yes. My pay as a boy was a shilling a day and a full-blown soldier, a fully-trained soldier, got four shillings a day.

Interviewer: What did the Army think of the Back and Tans?

RG: We didn't see a lot of them. They'd swoop into barracks, in and out ... they seemed to be a law unto themselves.

Interviewer: What did the civilian population think of the Back and Tans?

RG: Oh, they loathed them. They hated them ... because the Black and Tans stood absolutely no nonsense. They bashed people about, shot them. And it is suspected that they burnt down the main shopping centre in Cork after thirteen or fourteen chaps had been killed in an ambush.

Interviewer: How did you know that the civilian population was hostile to the Black and Tans?

RG: In many ways. You see if a soldier went into a pub he wasn't exactly welcomed with open arms but he was given a drink and they would talk to him, the publican would, but if a Black and Tan went into a pub there was dead silence.

Interviewer: Did you ever seen any hostilities yourself?

RG: No, I saw the results of them. On January 4th 1921, the police barracks at Tramore was attacked, we sent out a large patrol and luckily the patrol heard a shot go off. The force was split in two and they caught the Shinners [in the] crossfire and killed and wounded several Well, that morning I went into breakfast and there was two bodies laid out on the tables ... two Shinners. We were very lucky. We had several men wounded but only one fatal one.

Interviewer: What was the Army's opinion of the people against whom they were fighting?

RG: Not very much. Not very high at all. It was this question of tip and run. You see the ambushes were made chiefly by flying columns. They used to rendezvous at a certain point and the weapons for the ambush were brought out by the women in jaunting cars and things like that. Well, then having carried out the ambush, they'd push off and so another one.

Interviewer: Did you take any prisoners of the Sinn Fein?

RG: Oh yes, yes. But it usually meant if they were taken prisoner [in the later part of the war], they were court-martialed and shot. At one incident at County Cork, four or five men caught digging trenches across the road were court-martialed- if I remember - at four o'clock in the afternoon and shot at half past five ... That same night the Shinners went out and picked six British soldiers ... and shot them. So it was tit for tat.

Interviewer: When you saw the Sinn Fein prisoners what impression did you get of them?

RG: Well, I shan't say that they were nondescript, but they seemed to be of a certain age group ... early thirties I should say, maybe a bit younger. The older men of course were the Commandants as they called themselves, the OCs of the various brigades and whatnot.

Interviewer: Did you have any dangerous moments yourself in Ireland?

RG: Not myself because I was young, silly, I used to wander miles out into the countryside taking a girl home but nothing was said to be me. Yet in other cases men had been picked up and shot [because of] associating with Irish girls. You see Cork was the worst place of the lot; they'd be more violent there than anywhere. Cork and Dublin were pretty bad.

Interviewer: So you were courting an Irish girl were you?

RG: Well, you know, the usual thing, a lad of fifteen.
