

Breaking the Chains

4-7 October, Athens, Greece

JCOERE

Professor Irene Lynch Fannon
School of Law
University College Cork

Breaking the Chains

4-7 October, Athens, Greece

- The PROJECT
- The objective of the project is to ‘Enhance Judicial Co-operation under the Recast Insolvency Regulation (EU 2015/858) supporting preventive restructuring (rescue) processes for European businesses.’ The emphasis is on the obligations imposed on European Judiciary and Courts by the Recast Regulation to co-operate in the context of cross border insolvency with particular emphasis on preventive restructuring.

Breaking the Chains

4-7 October, Athens, Greece

- THE APPLICATION and GRANT PROCESS
- DG Justice Call DG JCCO JUST
- Funding application- the process from September 2017- May 2018.
- Grant Signature, approval and start up-
 - May 2018- 2nd October 2018.
- JCOERE is an EU funded project Number 800807 DG JUST AG

Breaking the Chains

4-7 October, Athens, Greece

The following activities have been described in the application:

- A. Literature review and consultation exercise describing legal frameworks in some member states and in the proposed Directive COM(2016) 723 on preventive restructuring identifying doctrinal and procedural rules relevant to judicial co-operation obligations described in Articles 42, 57 and Recital 48 of the 2015 Recast Regulation. The member states will in part be determined by the partners invited to participate including Romania, Italy, Ireland, but will also extend to other jurisdictions where interesting issues are presented including Germany (where a more constrained approach to rescue seems evident) and the Netherlands. Processes in the UK will also be considered.

Breaking the Chains

4-7 October, Athens, Greece

- Activities Continued....
- B. Benchmarking of judicial utilisation and awareness of best practise guidelines on co-operation adopted by European and international organisations described in the Regulation. This will be done through the judicial wing of INSOL and other judicial networks if possible. INSOL is partner in this project.
- C. Engage in ongoing dissemination of knowledge and information on co-operation through enhanced judicial and practitioner networks improving judicial co-operation in relation to business recovery in the EU.
- Our Partners: University College Cork (Principal Investigator, Professor Irene Lynch Fannon) , University Titu Maiorescu, (Judge Nicoleta Mirela Nastasie), Università degli Studi di Firenze (Profs. Lorenzo Stanghellini and Andrea Zorzi), INSOL Europe (Dr. Paul Omar).

Breaking the Chains

4-7 October, Athens, Greece

Thanks are due!

- To all of the partners.
- To particular individuals ...
- And to you.....