

Parkinson's Disease:

The Centre of Gerontology and Rehabilitation is leading a national project promoting the palliative care needs of people with neurological disease (Parkinson's) funded by the Irish Hospice Foundation. This is an initiative to raise cultural awareness, educate healthcare workers and provide cohesive support to patients and their carers/families. In addition, a study on biomarkers of Parkinson's disease is also underway and is funded by Atlantic Philanthropies.