

Symposium

Linking Air Quality and Health Data in Ireland.

Joint UCC and Trinity College Dublin symposium supported by EPA Ireland and endorsed by Healthy Ireland.

Date: May 22nd 2019

Time: 10.00-16.00

Location: Room 1.28

Environmental Research Institute (ERI)

University College Cork, Lee Road, Cork, T23 XE10, Ireland.

10.00	Registration Tea and Coffee
Session 1 Current Research Projects on Environmental and Health Research Chairperson: Dr Éilis O'Reilly, School of Public Health, UCC
10.30	Welcome and Introduction
10.40	INHALE Project at University College Cork Stig Hellebust, Department of Chemistry, UCC
11.00	Health Impacts of NO <sub>2</sub> Margaret O'Mahony and Brian Broderick, Trinity College Dublin
11.20	Air Quality Data Collection and Availability in Ireland Micheál O'Dwyer, EPA Ireland
11.40	Discussion
12.00	Tea and Coffee
Session 2 Lessons Learned Chairperson: Prof Margaret O'Mahony, Trinity College Dublin
12.10	Lessons from 30-years of Working with Health and Environmental Data Pat Goodman, Dublin Institute of Technology
12.30	Accessing Clinical Data: The Long Winding Road Jean O'Dwyer, School of Biological, Earth and Environmental Sciences, UCC
12.50	NO <sub>2</sub> Exposure and Asthma among over-50s in Ireland: A Microdata Analysis Seán Lyons, ESRI
13.10	Discussion
13.20	Lunch
Session 3 Opportunities Identified Chairperson: Dr Stig Hellebust, University College Cork
14.30	Health Data in Ireland Claire Buckley, Health Service Executive
14.50	Honest Broker Services Outside Ireland Éilis O'Reilly, School of Public Health, UCC
15.10	Environment and Health Statistics Gerry Brady, Central Statistics Office
15.30	Quantifying Exposure to Air Pollution in Urban Areas using Human Mobility Patterns Marguerite Nyhan, Civil and Environmental Engineering Department, UCC
15.50	Discussion
16.00	Close of Event

Notes: