STSMs and a Training School in year-2

Dear All,

Technical Group UV-Technology (TG1) is organizing a Training School on "Methods for research on the effects of UV-B on plants". This will take place in Malaga (Spain) 16-18 April 2012.

You can apply at

http://www.fyboa.uma.es/i/?page\_id=116

You will also find further details and a preliminary programme at the Actions web site:

<http://www.ucc.ie/en/uv4growth/meetings/malaga2012/details/>

Please note that ESRs will be chosen in their order of application, so apply soon.

Short Term Science missions (STSMs) are still available in year-2. These are to be completed (visit completed, report submitted) by mid-May, so please apply before the end of February.

Details of the application procedure are at the Actions web site:
