

Session title and Outline:

“Coaching Mental Toughness”

I will give an overview of the mental toughness model how it can be applied in coaching, highlighting its benefits for clients. I will use a small case study, outlining the use of the mental toughness framework and psychometric within my coaching practice to help clients development of these key psychological skills.