

GRADUATE ATTRIBUTES

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE CORK

CHAPLAINCY

CREATORS, EVALUATORS AND COMMUNICATORS OF KNOWLEDGE

- In 1:1 meetings students can create new goals, evaluate current ones and/or communicate knowledge attained

INDEPENDENT AND CREATIVE THINKERS

- Discussion through a lens of faith offers independent and creative solutions
- A culture of 'wrestling with faith questions' fosters an analytical and unbiased mindset

DIGITALLY FLUENT

- Events and activities are publicised through WhatsApp, Facebook, Instagram, Google Forms, Mail Chimp and Canvas
- Moving towards digital-only to encourage fluency on such events as Relay for Life sign-ups
- Faith resources on apps and websites

SOCIALLY RESPONSIBLE

- Facilitate discussions with members of the community (Cork Penny Dinners, the Staff LGBT Network, and a former professional footballer-turned priest) to offer students awareness of issues in the modern world and an idea of conversations to have or life paths to choose to help cultivate change, understanding and healing
- Events such as Relay for Life team, Christmas food collection, Charity Coffee Morning fundraising
- Offer alternative activities on walking retreats to accommodate students with disabilities and medical requirements

EFFECTIVE, GLOBAL CITIZENS WHO RECOGNISE AND CHALLENGE INEQUALITY

- Faith series on 'finding a voice'
- Publicly support initiatives that challenge inequality such as Refugee Week, Bystander Intervention Week, LGBT Society, Disability Support Services, etc.
- Annual international trip to a holy site allows inter-cultural skills and awareness to be developed

IONA

HONAN CHAPEL

Graduate Attributes