Since its inception in 1868, Ca’ Foscari has been a leader in Economics, Econometrics and Modern Languages. Ca’ Foscari today is exploring new frontiers of knowledge, focusing on Climate Change, Digital Humanities, Cultural Heritage and Nanosciences.

Ca’ Foscari University is a magnet for successful academics from across Europe and beyond, and with a thriving community of internationally acclaimed scientists, highprofile politicians and economists, visiting Nobel laureates, famous writers and influencers in all disciplines, it offers students a powerful inspiration to become game-changers in their own fields and to make a genuine difference in the world.

Location

Italy, Venice
How to Get There

By Air

You can fly to Venice from Dublin with 1 stop flights.

The most convenient ways to get to Venice from Marco Polo airport is either by bus or by boat.

By bus

In order to take a bus you should use the exits on the ground floor; the bus will stop right in front of you. You can buy tickets from the ACTV stand for the bus number 25 (6,00 Euros – one way, urban line) in the ATVO stand (7,00 Euros – one way and no stops) or in the arrivals lounge from 8:00AM to 12:00PM. You can buy ATVO tickets also on board and from the ticket machines in the arrival lounge. Get off at Piazzale Roma, the city’s main bus station and the last stop. It takes about 30 minutes to get to Venice by bus.

By boat

If you prefer to reach Venice by boat, turn left as soon as you leave the airport. You can buy tickets for Alilaguna Service (14,00 Euros one way) both on-line and in the arrival lounge and it takes about an hour to get to Venice.

How to Apply

Once you have been nominated as an Erasmus student by UCC, you will need to complete an online application on Universita di Venezia website. Further information will be sent to nominated students by Universita di Venezia. Click here for more information about the application process.

If you wish to learn Italian or improve your existing language skills, the School for International Education offers Italian language courses, from A1 (Beginners) up to C2 (Advanced) all year round. Courses are only open to exchange students, teachers are native-tongue language instructors, and exercises are held in rooms with full multimedia access. Click here for further information.

Grading System

Most Italian universities use the grade point scale as seen on the table below:
Welcome Day and Orientation Week
The Welcome Days will take place in mid-September for the first semester and at the beginning of February for the second one.

Accommodation
The Housing office helps students to find a suitable and affordable accommodation in one of the student residences, flats or hotels that hold an agreement with Ca’ Foscari University. Students are provided with the application form for accommodation directly by the International Relations Office – Welcome Unit along with the acceptance e-mail (no download is available on-line). Click here for further information about accommodation.

Estimated Costs
Erasmus students do not pay registration/tuition fees to the host university. Travel expenses and living costs, however, are covered by each student. See the table below for estimated expenses students might have while living abroad. Please note that these are just rough estimates and will vary for each student, depending on their personal needs and choices.

Extracurricular Activities
The University Sports Centre of Venice (CUS) offers university students the chance to participate in a wide variety of sports such as judo and personal defence, aerobics, and other kinds of recreation such as volleyball, basketball, tennis, handball and five-aside football. There is also a sauna. In the city centre and on the mainland there are sports facilities for rowing, ‘voga alla veneta’, sailing, canoeing and kayaking, golf, horse riding, free climbing and swimming. The CUS also offers university members the possibility to take part in summer and winter sport camps. They also organise interfaculty football, volleyball, basketball, tennis and five aside football tournaments.
