

100 YEARS ON HOW FAR HAVE WE COME?

Cork County Library will host a panel discussion at the Council Chambers, County Hall on International Women's Day, 8th March 2018, 12.30pm, to mark the 100th anniversary of women's suffrage.

The discussion will be chaired and facilitated by author Denyse Woods, with an exciting line up of panellists:

Colette Sheridan, Journalist

Rola Abu Zeid O'Neill, Women's Studies, ACE (UCC)

Liz Maddox, Chairperson of the Older People's Council

Fiona Finn, Chief Executive Officer, NASC

This event is free and all are welcome, but places must be booked in advance, by contacting Library HQ at 021-4546499 or by email at corkcountylibrary@corkcoco.ie.