Three Face-to-Face (F2F) lecture hours per week, alternate weeks. If we have a full group of 50, it might be every three weeks. So, let's say, group A comes the first week for an hour of Morphology, an hour of Syntax and an hour of Phonetics. Then the following week, group B comes for the same hours and so on. All lectures will be recorded and available on Canvas for students not in class.

Arrangements for the workshops for the individual languages will be indicated later on, but they are smaller groups so it should be easier for the F2F.
