Senior Executive Programme

Build a winning organisation that performs at pace.

To successfully drive and sustain corporate success in these uncertain times, leaders need to build organisations that are agile, resilient and innovative. Leaders must create a collaborative organisation that is aligned to future objectives and that can act on disruptive and emerging trends.

To be a great leader today, you have to start building tomorrow.

This programme’s for you if:
You are a senior executive with responsibility (either individually or as a member of your top team) for steering your organisation strategically.

Participant will typically come from the C-suite, regional director, head of business unit and executive director levels within medium to large organisations.

The Experience:
Designed and delivered by experts from international business schools across Europe and the US, you will gain powerful and personal insights into your own leadership capabilities and how they can be leveraged to drive the strategic direction of your organisation.

Working within a peer-to-peer environment with other senior business leaders, the Senior Executive Programme acts as a compass for your future plans, allowing you to focus strategy, capabilities and possibilities into a formidable mix while drawing on the experience of others.

Mastering the Performance Mindset

Develop the focus, resilience and wellness that your future leadership demands

In the context of today’s strategic challenges and the current disruptive climate, maintaining your performance mindset is crucial.

By cutting through the noise and finding what works for you, this programme will allow you to individualise the myriad advice around nutrition, hydration, activity, sleep, breathing, and psychology into a long-term mindset that will allow you to perform sustainably at pace.

This programme’s for you if:
You are a C-level or senior leader across any sector who wants to become present in the moment and avoid distraction, adapt to stress or trauma, find value in adversity and recognise that sustained personal health and well-being is fundamental to your leadership performance.

The Experience:
This is a 10-week blended learning experience that will disrupt and reframe how you think about yourself as a leader. It will allow you to develop a mindset to respond and perform under pressure, be comfortable with discomfort, and reduce noise and distractions to focus on what matters.

Our interactive format will encourage you to create collaborative relationships and develop a network of minds that think alike, all while fostering a culture of performance in your organisation as you start defining your personal action plan.

The Results:
You will emerge with improved self-awareness and be more ‘present’ both in your personal and organisational lives. Leadership Decision Making

Influence and lead decisions at the highest level

As a leader, you are defined by your decisions, and as much by the “when” you decide as by the “what”. It’s not enough to make consistently great calls; you often have to do so with imperfect information.

This programme’s for you if:
You are a C-level or senior leader who’s looking to develop an agile mindset, allowing you to excel within the grey spaces of new value.

The Experience:
Throughout this 10-week blended learning experience, you will gain a firm understanding of your decision-making context, how you operate within it, and how to adapt your behaviour to make better decisions both individually, as part of a group, and — via influence — at an organisational level.

Your assumptions on how you make decisions will be challenged. You will explore what impact those decisions have and whether your decision-making process is currently clouded by any inherent bias on your part.

You will have the opportunity to apply your developed decision-making to real-world situations, reviewing your own and your organisation’s current decision-making ability. You will fuse what you’ve learned into ongoing habits as you start to effectively navigate complex decisions.

The Results:
Upon completion, you will be able to effectively navigate complex decisions, frame decision-making situations to make more informed, swift choices with incomplete information.

Learning how to mitigate against personal biases, you will also be able to apply influencing skills to drive decision-making in an organisation while developing your own personal action plan.

A programme designed for women aspiring to and preparing for more senior management roles while navigating today’s complex business landscape.

You are a female executive; exploring your career options and ambitions or hoping to accelerate your career and personal development.

The Experience:
You will be given the time and space to explore where you are in your work and career, articulate the leadership challenges facing you in today’s workplace and develop the insight and skills to address these.

Practical, outcome-oriented tasks will help you to develop increased resilience and strategies to maintain balance in a competitive organisation, while identifying your personal career and leadership ambitions.

The Results:
You will emerge a more compelling, influential and confident leader with tools and technique to inspire others and get results.
